

Brand Bew Chanel$

[Intro]

Mm-mm, mm-mm

Mm-mm, mm-mm

[Verse 1]

Send another weak "I'm sorry," unforgivable as always

I knew you had seen somebody

Was it worth causing all my darkest days?

She was at your party, you said not to worry

Doesn't really matter anyway

Begging you to call me, spin another story while I'm far away

[Pre-Chorus]

I, I bet she rock brand-new Chanel's

What a chop, I cut you off and get away, yeah

I, I'm better off, I always knew you'd do it

Why'd you have to lie? Made me feel crazy

Ah, in my apartment, my clothes in the corner

Why'd you let her stay the night?

Did you hide all of our pictures in the kitchen?

She would probably never care, 'cause stupid bitches (Never mind)

[Chorus]

I'm holding it alone, just for tonight

I wonder if you got her in your room

I call you on the phone to start a fight

I know what you do, I see how you move

But I'm here standing still

Oh, I'm here standing still

Oh, I'm here standing still

[Verse 2]

Found out that you tried to kill me

Right before my most important day
Tell me why'd you ever bring her
In my home while I was so far away?

[Pre-Chorus]

I, I bet she rock brand-new Chanels
What a chop, I cut you off and get away, yeah
I, I'm better off, I always knew you'd do it
Why'd you have to lie? Made me feel crazy

[Chorus]

I'm holding it alone, just for tonight
I wonder if you got her in your room
I call you on the phone to start a fight
I know what you do, I see how you move
But I'm here standing still

[Outro]

He want sex, money, bitches and to lie through his teeth
Getting head, white and blue if you know what I mean
At those nasty little after parties, stuck in the scene
He want brand-new Chanels
He want brand-new Chanels (Oh, woah-oh)
He want brand-new Chanels (Oh, oh-ah)
