

Need Your Love

Oh Oh I need your love
Oh Oh I need your love
Oh Oh I need your love
Oh Oh I need your love
Oh Oh I need your love
Oh Oh I need your love

Don't need the buzz or the credit cards
The house on the hill with the perfect yard
Don't gotta see my name on the boulevard
I don't need a million dollars
Give me expensive problems
Don't need a drink just to fill the cup

But I, I need your love
Oh I, I need your love
Got me saying, I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
Oh I, I need your love

Don't gotta act like such a big deal
I don't gotta lie cause the way you make me feel
Most people searching for something real
And I don't need a million dollars
Don't need expensive problems
Don't need a drink just to fill the cup

But I, I need your love
Oh I, I need your love
Got me saying, I need your love
I need your love
Can't get enough
I need your love
Oh I, I need your love

And when all of the time starts to slip away
Gonna love those lines
Gonna love your shades of grey
You know that I have made a million mistakes
But I won't make a million others

At least not with another
No don't need a drink just to fill the cup

But I, I need your love
Oh I, I need your love
Got me saying, I need your love
I need your love
Can't get enough
I need your love
Oh I, I need your love

Oh I, I need
Oh I, I need
Oh I, I need
