Mystery power cuts hit millions

Mystery power cuts stop thousands of traffic lights and hit millions of homes. Why does this happen? The answer can sometimes be really weird ...

New York City in darkness

From our reporters around the world

1 A mystery power cut hit all of Kenya yesterday.

At 11.30 yesterday, there was no electricity. 4,700,000 homes had no heating and no food.

The power cut happened while students at a local school were rehearsing for a school concert. 'I was singing when suddenly all the lights went out,' said 11-year-old Joseph. 'It was so weird.'

2 A power cut hit thousands of houses in Nagano, Japan.

Across the country, people were making lunch. 'I was cooking soup when the power went off,' said Ema Sato. 'My cooker is electric, so it stopped working. We had to eat biscuits for lunch!'

25,000 traffic lights stopped working. 'The traffic lights went out when we were walking across the road,' said Miki Suzuki. 'And there was a car accident. An ambulance came but it didn't have to take people to hospital. They're OK.'

'The train went dark, a woman shouted and the train stopped – in the dark! It was really scary!'

3 What caused the power cut in New York?

Thirteen million people had no electricity for 13 hours. 12-year-old Aimie Sendak was travelling home. 'My train was leaving the station when the lights went out,' she said. 'The train went dark, a woman shouted and the train stopped – in the dark! It was really scary.'

4 A power cut caused a big problem at Kahului Airport in Maui, Hawaii.

There was no electricity, so people couldn't get off their planes. The problem lasted a few hours.

5 What caused all these power cuts?

Was it the weather? The answer is unusual – animals caused them!

- In Kenya, a little monkey jumped onto a power station at Gitaru, and fell into the machines. The monkey was OK, but the power cut lasted for four hours.
- Pigeons made a nest at a power station in Nagano and cut the power.
- A squirrel caused the power cut in New York. Squirrels cause the most power cuts in the USA – over a thousand across the country, every year!
- And the power cut in Hawaii? It happened because of a chicken!

- 1  1.7 Read the story on pages 18–20. Who are the main characters? What does the title The trick mean?

The TRICK

Musa and Hakan lived next door to each other in a small village. They were good friends, but there was one problem. Money was very important to Hakan and, unfortunately, it was sometimes more important than his friends.

One day, Hakan noticed that his horse, Atik, wasn't well.

'I think we should sell Atik,' he told his wife, Pinar. 'He isn't strong and healthy anymore.'

Pinar was surprised. 'Sell a sick horse?' she said. 'That isn't honest. And who will buy a sick animal, anyway?'

'Well,' said Hakan, 'I don't know if Atik is sick, but he used to be stronger. Musa needs to travel to the city soon and he hasn't got a horse.'

'But Musa is your friend,' said Pinar angrily. 'You shouldn't sell an unhealthy horse to anyone, and certainly not to your friend!'

'But Musa hasn't got enough money to buy a horse,' explained Hakan. 'I'll give him a very good price for Atik, so I think I'm doing a good thing for my friend!'

Musa was watering the plants in his garden next door when he heard the last part of the conversation through the open window. 'Aha!' he thought. 'So Hakan is going to try and sell me a sick horse. It's time to teach my friend a lesson!'

The next day, Musa and Hakan were drinking coffee together when Musa asked, 'Do you know anyone who is selling a horse?'

'Why do you need a horse?' asked Hakan.

'I need to travel to the city soon to see my family,' explained Musa.

'Well, it's your lucky day. I'm thinking of selling Atik,' said Hakan.

'He's the strongest and fastest horse in the village. I paid a lot of money for him, but I will sell him to you, my friend, for a very good price.'

Musa loved his friend like a brother, so he didn't say anything. But he had a plan. 'OK,' he said. 'Tomorrow I'll come to your house to buy the horse.'

That evening, while Hakan was having dinner, Musa took a chair and broke it against the kitchen wall. Then he shouted, 'Aaaaargh! Help!' very loudly and lay down on the floor next to the broken chair. Hakan heard his cries and ran to Musa's house.

'Musa! Musa! What's happened?' he shouted, running into the kitchen.

Reading time 1

'I've had an accident,' replied Musa. 'I was taking food from a shelf when I fell off the chair. I think I've broken my leg!'

'You need to go to hospital immediately,' said Hakan worriedly.

'The nearest hospital is thirty kilometres away,' said Musa. 'But how lucky we are to have Atik! You can take me there on the strongest and fastest horse in the village! It will only take three hours.'

Hakan knew that this was an emergency and that Atik couldn't carry his friend for three hours. It was time to tell Musa the truth. He explained that Atik wasn't strong and healthy anymore and offered to buy Musa the strongest and fastest horse in the whole country to take him to hospital.

Musa knew that Hakan was truly sorry. He stood up and showed Hakan that his leg wasn't broken. Hakan understood that Musa had tricked him too. He laughed and laughed, and then he hugged his friend.

'I'm so sorry, Musa. You're the best friend in the world and I will never try to trick you again.'

Soon after that, Atik got better and Hakan gave the horse to his friend as a present to show him how truly sorry he was.

1 Read the story on pages 18–20 again. Answer the questions.

- 3 How did Musa know that the horse was sick?
- 4 What accident did Musa say he had?
- 5 What did Musa want Hakan to do?
- 6 Why did Hakan decide to tell Musa the truth?

- 3 It's important to be honest.
- 4 You should be kind to animals.
- 5 Sometimes a bad experience can show you that you're wrong.

3   Work in pairs. Discuss the questions. Give reasons for your answers.

4   Imagine that Musa really broke his leg and Hakan didn't tell him the truth. How would the ending be different? Discuss.

Daniel's diary

20th February 1992

Another power cut! I'm writing this diary in my bedroom. It's very cold – there's ice on the inside of the window! There's no heating or electricity but I've got a blanket, a torch and a hot water bottle to help me stay warm.

You won't believe what happened today. It was a bad day. A really, REALLY terrible day. I missed the bus, so I had to walk home from school. When I opened my school bag at home, my homework book wasn't there!

I used to get bad marks from my teacher when I forgot my homework. I don't want to do that again.

'Mum, what can I do?' I asked. 'I don't know the homework for tonight!' 'Phone your friend Mark and ask him,' she said.

Vocabulary

atlas borrow (borrowed) cassette player diary encyclopaedia freezing hot water bottle office phone box remember (remembered)

Phone mark? We used to have a phone in our house, but it's broken, so I walked to the phone box. Then I remembered I didn't have any money, so I went back home and got some coins. I wrote mark's phone number on a piece of paper and walked back to the phone box. But mark wasn't home when I phoned him! He was playing football. What? He didn't use to play football on Thursday nights!

I left the phone box and walked home. It was FREEZING outside! There was snow on the ground and that helped me remember! The homework was about Antarctica!

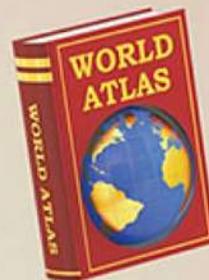

'Mum, I remembered my homework!' I said when I got home. 'It's about Antarctica! It used to be really cold there, but global warming is changing it! I need to check some things. Where's the encyclopaedia?'

Mum looked sad. We used to have an encyclopaedia, but we haven't got one now. My uncle Jack came to visit and borrowed it for work at school – he's a teacher. So I did my homework with an old atlas from my dad's office and some information from a children's book. I don't think it's very good.

I sat by the fire for ten minutes to try to get warm, then I went to bed and listened to music on my cassette player. Then the cassette broke! The machine doesn't work.

And then, I was writing this diary when I spilt ink on the bed.

I'm having a really BAD DAY!

Working with words

Making nouns from verbs

Sometimes we can make nouns from verbs. We often add -er or -or:

paint – painter                      direct – director

Learning how to change words to make different parts of speech can help you expand your vocabulary.

Make nouns from these verbs. Then add two more to the list.

What a day!! I was late for school and we had a trip to the zoo (I forgot!). They had to wait for me and Mrs Tarrant was angry. She gave me extra homework – she used to be my favourite teacher!

The zoo was fun. We fed the monkeys and a cute baby monkey stole Joe’s hat! Ha! Ha! Ha! It was awesome! But then we went to the snake house. Yuck! I HATE snakes!

Later I was watching TV when Mum shouted, ‘VERA, HOMEWORK!’ Arrrgh, we didn’t use to get so much homework. Tomorrow I can stay in bed because it’s SATURDAY!!

3 How does Vera write these sentences in her diary?

7  Have a class vote. Which diary entry made the trip sound most interesting? Do you agree with what was the best thing about the trip? Why / Why not?

Learning to learn

Memorising new vocabulary

To help you remember new vocabulary, try to learn a small number of new words (about eight) and repeat these regularly. This is easier than trying to learn 25 new words all at the same time. Here are some ideas to help you revise and repeat new vocabulary:

- Write the words on labels. Stick them on your wall so you see the words every day.
- Record the words and play them back.
- Write sentences with the words. Practise saying the sentences to a friend.

Lesson 7 Speaking

Using extreme adjectives

Extreme adjectives are words we use to mean very + (adjective). They make our writing and speaking more interesting. When we see the word cold, we imagine one feeling. But if we see the word freezing, we imagine a stronger feeling – very cold or extremely cold.

Read the extreme adjectives in the yellow box. Then write them in the correct places in the table. Some extreme adjectives can go in more than one place.

Adjective	Extreme adjective(s)
good	great different, unusual big surprising small pretty amazing beautiful brilliant great huge incredible

tiny weird

Learning to learn

Using a mind map to plan

A mind map is a useful way of organising thoughts and information. Look at the mind map a writer made for a webpage about the Skywalk in Shanghai. To make a mind map:

- write the name of your topic in the middle of the page.
- think of ideas related to your topic. Draw lines from the main topic and write your ideas at the end.
- think of more information connected to each idea and add it to your mind map.

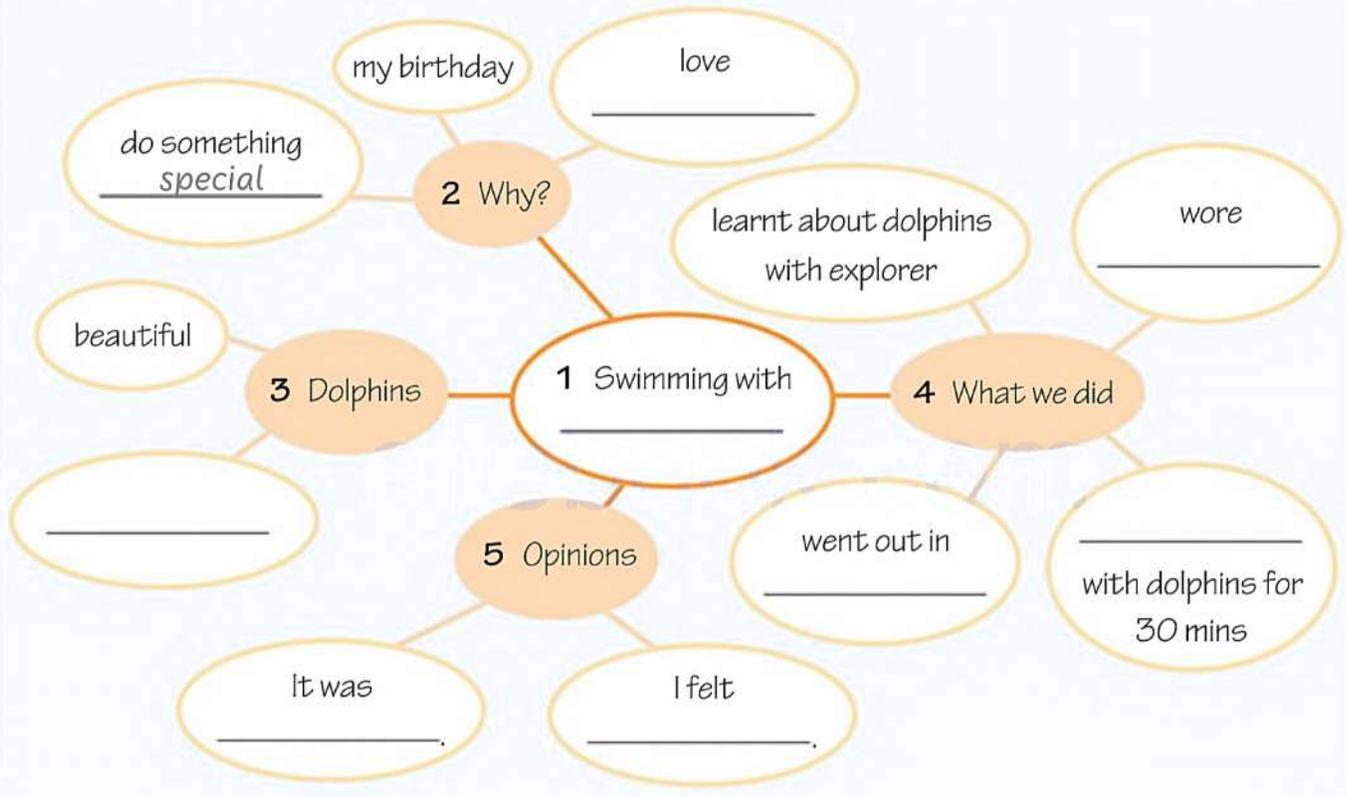

Read Eric and Maddy’s description of their trip on page 35 and make a mind map of their ideas.

1 Look at the webpage on pages 34–35. Tick (✓) the things that are true.

Where were April and Sandy? Who were the three men?

Mystery on the beach

April lived on a small island off the coast of Africa. Her cousin Sandy was visiting her from Australia. One evening they were following a rocky path down to the beach. The scenery and the views across the sea were beautiful.

'Look at all the kayaks,' said April. 'Have you ever been kayaking?'

'No, I haven't,' replied Sandy. 'I've been sailing, but I've never tried kayaking.'

'Let's go one day,' suggested April. 'It's a great way to explore the island.'

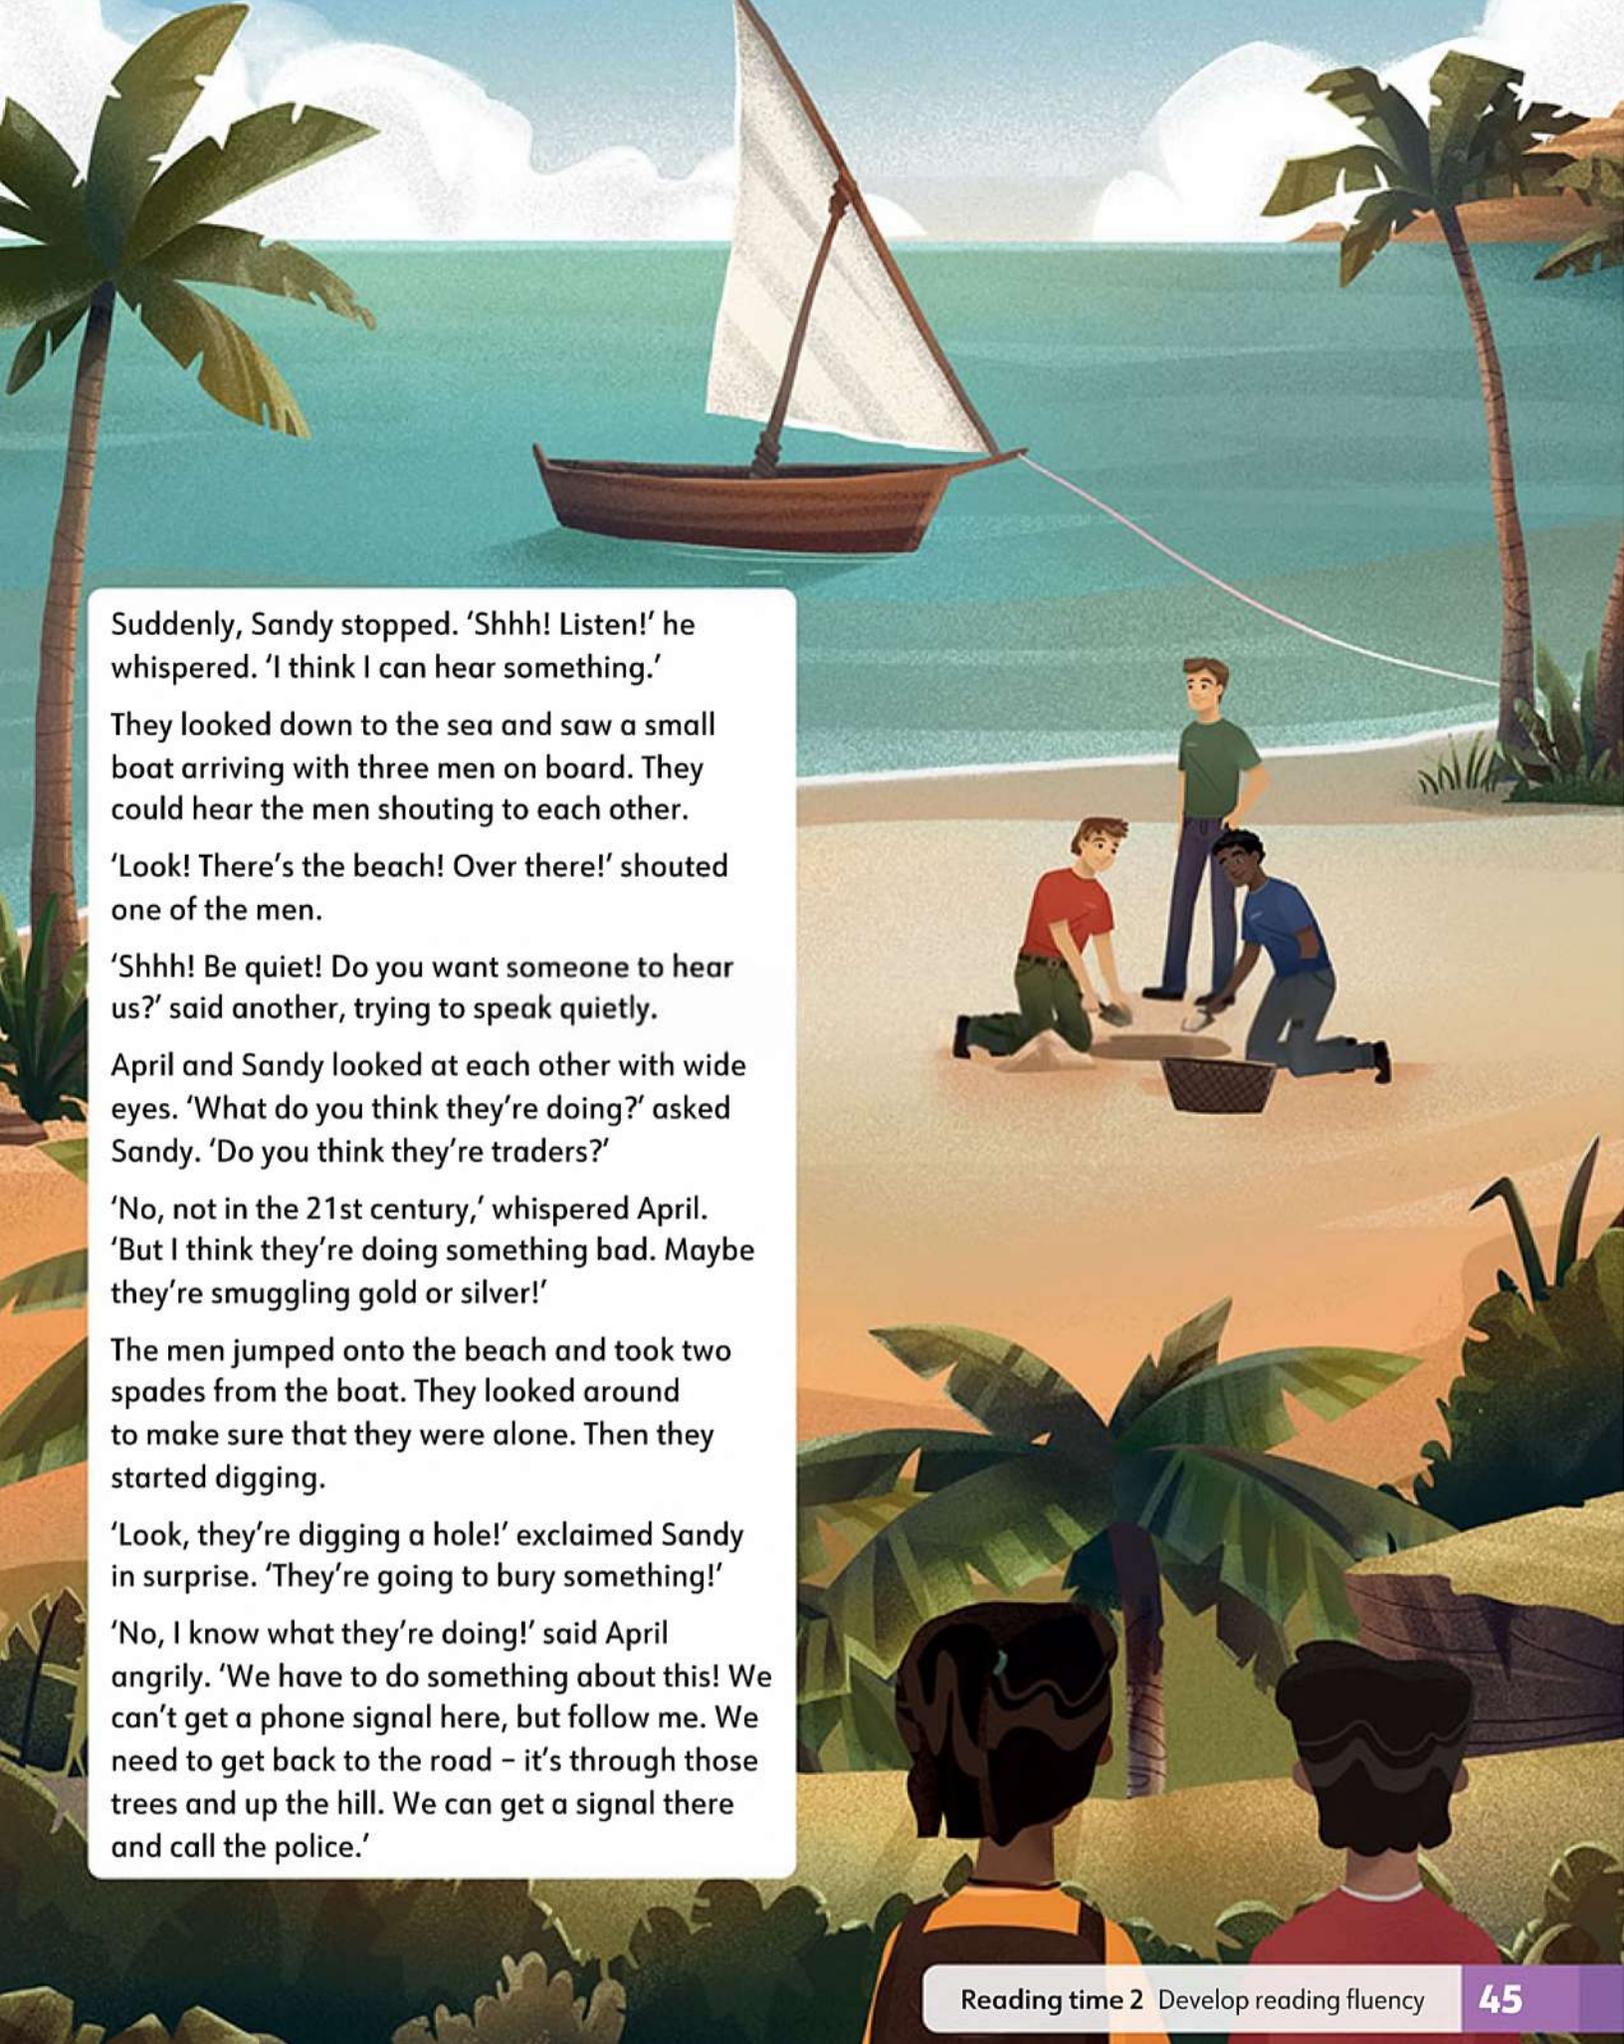

'Can you tell me more about the island?' asked Sandy.

'Of course,' said April. 'We have some of the best beaches in the world, as you can see! And in town, there are beautiful houses, palaces and gardens. We'll visit them while you're here.'

'Great!' said Sandy. 'And what about the history of the island?'

'Well,' replied April. 'It used to be an important trading route – people used to come here from all over the world to sell things like sugar and spices. Many of them decided to stay on the island. Our food is a mixture of lots of different cultures, like Portuguese, Indian and Chinese – it's delicious! My mum will cook us something amazing tonight!'

Suddenly, Sandy stopped. 'Shhh! Listen!' he whispered. 'I think I can hear something.'

They looked down to the sea and saw a small boat arriving with three men on board. They could hear the men shouting to each other.

'Look! There's the beach! Over there!' shouted one of the men.

'Shhh! Be quiet! Do you want someone to hear us?' said another, trying to speak quietly.

April and Sandy looked at each other with wide eyes. 'What do you think they're doing?' asked Sandy. 'Do you think they're traders?'

'No, not in the 21st century,' whispered April. 'But I think they're doing something bad. Maybe they're smuggling gold or silver!'

The men jumped onto the beach and took two spades from the boat. They looked around to make sure that they were alone. Then they started digging.

'Look, they're digging a hole!' exclaimed Sandy in surprise. 'They're going to bury something!'

'No, I know what they're doing!' said April angrily. 'We have to do something about this! We can't get a phone signal here, but follow me. We need to get back to the road - it's through those trees and up the hill. We can get a signal there and call the police.'

Two hours later, April and Sandy were back on the beach talking to two police officers.

'Well done, kids!' said one of the officers. He pointed to the three men. 'This is the Turtle Gang. We've finally caught them!'

Sandy turned towards April. 'What's the Turtle Gang?' he asked.

'Hawksbill turtles are a very important part of the wildlife on the island,' explained April. 'They return to the beaches every two or three years to dig nests and lay their eggs. The villagers look after them and protect the nests. But the turtle eggs are very valuable - people pay a lot of money for them.'

'Oh! So those men were stealing their eggs!' exclaimed Sandy. 'That's terrible!'

'Yes, it is,' said the police officer. 'But thanks to you two, the turtle eggs are safe. These men will never steal another egg!'

Amazing jobs

Have you ever thought about what job you'd like to do? A teacher, a nurse – or something a bit different? How long have you wanted to do this job?

We spoke to three people who know which job they want to do. We asked them what they're doing now, and what they'd like to do in the future.

The environmental scientist

Marie Patterson wants to be an environmental scientist. 'I've been interested in science, nature and animals since I was little,' says Marie. 'I want to keep the planet safe. I'm going to study environmental science at university.'

Marie is 17, and she has volunteered for Picker Pals in Ireland for two months. 'Picker Pals is great,' she says. 'They send primary schools tools, storybooks and songs. The kids do the activities and have fun collecting litter from the environment with their families. Two thousand schools in Ireland are doing the Picker Pals programme. It's very rewarding – I love learning about the environment!'

The film-makers

The Critics Company is a group of young film-makers from Nigeria who have been making films since 2016. They learnt about film-making on the internet. They needed a 'green screen' for special effects, explains Raymond Yusuff, 18, who is a member of the group. So they saved money and bought the material for the green screen. 'Then we used my smartphone and borrowed my dad's laptop computer and started filming,' Raymond says. He's wanted to make films since he was a child. He really likes working with special effects.

There are five boys in Critics Company. They make science fiction films that vary in length, but the longest to date is 18 minutes long. Their films are very popular: people watched one of them more than one million times! Famous film-makers sent equipment and money. 'We were so excited,' Raymond says. Now they're making lots of films and they love it!

The computer coder

Pat Leeman, 36, is a computer coder. She works in big factories around the world. How long has she wanted to be a coder? 'I've been interested in computers since I was eight,' she says. 'I learnt on a computer called Raspberry Pi. This taught me how to code, how to build websites and how machines work with computers.' Pat says computer coding is easy. 'A computer is like a big baby,' she says. 'The instructions need to be simple and you have to give a lot of them. When you understand that, you're a coder! I really like writing code.'

Martha Spacey is 14. She likes computers and has studied coding at school for the last year. 'At the moment, I'm designing a car and making it work from a computer. I'm enjoying it – it's really challenging. I'd like to be a coder in the future!'

1 Read and answer the questions.

- 1 Who used a code long ago?
- 2 What did he use it for?
- 3 How does this code work?

Computer programming is a very popular job. To do this job, you need to be good at understanding codes. Julius Caesar used a code to send secret messages to his soldiers. You can make a version of his code. First, you write the alphabet. Then you make the code by writing the alphabet again under it, starting with a different letter. For example, under a write c.

Alphabet	a	b	c	d	e	f	g	h	i	j	k	l	m	n	o	p	q	r	s	t	u	v	w	x	y	z
Code	c	d	e	f	g	h	i	j	k	l	m	n	o	p	q	r	s	t	u	v	w	x	y	z	a	b

2 Use the code in Activity 1 to decode the secret message. How quickly can you do it? What is Ishan's hobby?

-  Look at the pictures. What type of story do you think it is? Why?
  - a mystery
  - a science fiction story
  - a biography
-  5.1 What do you think happens in the story? Read the text quickly and check your ideas.
- Look at the vocabulary box. Find the words in the text. Use the context to work out what they mean.
-  What is the main theme of the story? Be a star!
  - It's important to play outdoors as well as indoors.
  - Real tennis is better than virtual tennis.

A TRIP TO REMEMBER

Abi was playing a virtual tennis game on her tablet.

'Why don't you go and play tennis outside?' suggested Grandma.

'Why would I go outside?' replied Abi. 'Virtual tennis is just as good as real tennis.'

'Ha!' said Grandma. 'I prefer playing tennis outside. Fresh air is important and we won't have it forever!'

'Oh, Grandma,' laughed Abi. 'Of course we will!'

The next day was Abi's birthday. She ran outside to Grandma's workshop. It was full of wonderful inventions - a flying trumpet, a musical pen and a robot window cleaner!

'Happy birthday!' said Grandma as she hugged Abi. 'Wait there and I'll get your present. Be careful though. Remember not to touch anything!'

Abi looked around the workshop at all the new inventions. Then she noticed an old sheet in the corner. She lifted the sheet and found an old-fashioned purple bike underneath it.

'Hmm ... this bike isn't as interesting as Grandma's other inventions,' she thought. She got on the bike and started to pedal forwards. Suddenly, Abi and the bike were lifted into the air!
Whoosh! Clunk!

Abi opened her eyes and realised that she was in the town centre! But everything looked different! All around her there were tall glass skyscrapers with flying cars whizzing past.

'Oh, my goodness! I'm in the future!' she exclaimed, looking at the old bike in surprise. Then she noticed a robot cleaning the street nearby.

'Where is all the grass? Where are all the trees?' she asked the robot.

'What is grass?' asked the robot. 'What are trees?'

Abi looked around. The sky was grey and the air felt polluted. She couldn't see any birds or animals anywhere. In fact, the streets were empty – why weren't there any children playing outside?

'I don't like it here,' she said unhappily. 'I want to go home.' Abi knew what she had to do. She jumped onto the bike and pedaled backwards.

Whoosh! Clunk! Abi opened her eyes and saw that she was back in Grandma's workshop.

'There you are,' said Grandma. 'I was looking for you!'

Abi got off the bike and hugged her grandma.

'Here's your present,' said Grandma. Abi opened it. It was a new time-travel game for her tablet.

'Thanks, Grandma!' said Abi. 'It's fantastic! I can't wait to play it later. But first, can we go outside and play tennis?'

Grandma smiled. 'Of course we can! Real tennis is just as good as virtual tennis,' she said, laughing.

Vocabulary

crowded cycle path fit travel card

1 5.2 Listen and say.

-  Do you always cycle to school?
-  Yes, I do. I love riding my bike.
-  But there's lots of traffic. Cycling is too dangerous for me.
-  It isn't dangerous. I use a cycle path and I always wear my helmet.
-  But it takes a long time - it isn't fast enough.
-  It only takes 20 minutes. There isn't any traffic on the cycle path.
-  Well, I'm not fit enough to cycle. I take the bus to school.
-  But buses are too crowded in the morning.
-  That's true.
-  And it costs three pounds a day. That's too expensive!
-  Well, I've got a travel card, so it isn't as expensive.

2 Complete the text with too / not enough and the adjectives in brackets.

- 1 I don't like walking to school. It's <sup>1</sup> too far (far). The pavements are <sup>2</sup> _____ (crowded) and the traffic is <sup>3</sup> _____ (noisy). And on cold days it isn't <sup>4</sup> _____ (warm) to walk.
- 2 I don't like travelling by train. The trains here aren't <sup>5</sup> _____ fast) - they're <sup>6</sup> _____ (slow). Then when they arrive, they're <sup>7</sup> _____ (crowded) - you usually have to stand! Also, they cost six pounds a day so they're <sup>8</sup> _____ (expensive).

3 Work in pairs. Make a new dialogue. Use the ideas from Activity 2. Be a star!

Reading complex tables

When you travel, you sometimes need to use timetables. Timetables contain a lot of information. Focus on the information you need.

Make the information easier to understand:

- 1 Look for your destination (where you are going) and focus on it.
- 2 Look for the day and time you are travelling.
- 3 When you find the information, write it down quickly.

Find information in the timetable to answer the questions.

- 1 Where does the ferry leave from? Palm Beach
- 2 How often does it depart in the morning? _____
- 3 How long does it take from Palm Beach to Ocean Bay? _____
- 4 Which day can you not take the 5 pm ferry to Spring Falls? _____

Your challenge

- 1 You're in a 100 km race. You are the driver of a boat-car, which travels on water and on roads.
- 2 There are two other people: a navigator and a captain. You need the navigator to read the map. You need the captain to cross the river.
- 3 The navigator and the captain cannot be in the car at the same time.

A NEW LIFE FOR YOUR CHEWING GUM - AND OTHER THINGS YOU THROW AWAY

Around the world people throw away billions of things every year. This is a big problem because there isn't space on Earth for all our waste.

Scientists have studied the problem, and they have found an answer – the Zero Waste Plan:

1. REDUCE Don't buy so many things.
2. REUSE Don't throw things away. Use them again.
3. RECYCLE Some things can be used again – paper, plastic and glass, for example.
4. RECOVER Use the waste to make energy.
5. THROW IT AWAY Only if you really have to, throw the waste away.

Let's look at some examples. Every year people throw away a lot of clothes, but we can give them a new life. Think about the clothes you wear – denim jeans, for example. Denim is a type of fabric, made of cotton, and cotton needs a lot of water to grow. You need 10,000 litres of water and a lot of energy to make just one pair of jeans. So if your old jeans are too small but not too old, you can give them to your friends or family. Then they can reuse them. Or you can recycle your jeans – make something new with them, like a bag. Or you can use the fabric to fix other jeans!

In the Netherlands, they've had another recycling idea. In Amsterdam, the capital city, chewing gum is a big problem. 1.5 million kilograms of gum are thrown onto the city's streets every year and the gum stays there for 20 years. It's dirty and it looks bad. Designers looked at the problem and they found an answer: we can use the gum to make shoes! Gum is made of rubber and parts of shoes are made of rubber, too. The gum in Amsterdam is recycled and made into new rubber. Then that rubber is used to make shoes that are sold around the world.

This is how the shoes are made. The streets are cleaned, the gum is collected and transported to a factory. Then the gum is broken down into small pieces and it is added to rubber to make a new rubber mix. The rubber mix is melted and pressed to make the soles of the shoes. Then leather or fabric is cut to make the top parts of the shoes. Factory workers put the parts together and then the shoes are ready to be sold in shops.

It takes about 1 kg of gum to make four pairs of shoes. The shoes still smell like gum – but they don't stick to the streets! It's an example of recycling that really works.

HOW CAN YOU BE PART OF THE ZERO WASTE PLAN?

Lesson 2 Reading comprehension

1 Number the stages in order. Check your answers on pages 70–71.

- a The shoes are sold in shops around the world.
- b Gum is thrown onto Amsterdam's streets.
- c The gum is collected.

- 1 Why is chewing gum a problem on Amsterdam's streets? It's dirty and it looks bad.
- 2 How long does it stay on the streets? _____
- 3 What is it made into? _____
- 4 What other things can be used again? _____

3   Work in pairs. Discuss the questions.

- 1 What other things are made of recycled materials?
- 2 Do you buy any recycled things?

Working with words

Suffixes: -tion and -sion

Why is it a good idea to reuse or recycle old things?

You can add -tion and -sion to some verbs to make them into a noun:

create - creation                      decide - decision

Sometimes you have to drop the final e from the verb or change the final consonant, before you add the suffix. If the verb already ends in t, then you only need to add -ion. Make a note of these spellings as you learn new words.

Make nouns from these verbs.

Researching information

The internet is a great place for researching information, but it's not the only place.

Here are other ways you can find different information:

- Ask people (teacher, parents, grandparents)
- Use a library (books, encyclopaedias, newspapers, local history / community)
- Watch TV programmes like the news or documentaries.

Internet searches are quick and easy. But when you look on the internet, remember:

- Some articles are true; some articles are false. Check your information. If a story is difficult to believe, look for another article that says the same thing.
- Official websites made by governments, newspapers, encyclopaedias and big TV companies are good places to look.

Where would you look for information on these topics?

One small object that you can keep in your pocket for when you need it. You can use it for camping, power cuts or writing in the dark! It's made of plastic and comes in light green or dark purple. There are cheaper torches if you want to save money – but they aren't as good as this one! No other torch is as useful as the Lumina. So throw away your old torch and buy the Lumina today. You'll find out just how special it is!

- 2 Read the advert in Activity 1 again and underline the adjectives.
- 3 Work in pairs. Think of a new product to advertise. Complete the information and draw your product.

Product name:	_____
Special because:	_____ _____
Made of:	_____
Used for:	_____ _____
Adjectives to describe it:	_____ _____

- 4 Make a radio advert about your new product. Then perform your advert for the class.

- 1 Introduce your product – why is it different or special?
- 2 Say two facts about your product.
- 3 Give two opinions about it.
- 4 Remember to use adjectives to describe it.

- 2 What's your favourite type of music? Why?
- 3 When do you usually listen to music?
- 4 How do you listen to music?

2  7.1 Look at the article. What two types of text does it contain? Who do you think the man in the photo is? Read the text quickly and check your ideas.

3 Look at the vocabulary box. Find the words in the text. Use the context to work out what they mean.

Martin Stark

What's your favourite type of music?

I like all types of music – I often listen to pop music or rap, and I like some classical music, too. But my real love is folk music.

Why folk music?

A lot of people ask me that! Folk music is a type of traditional music which isn't usually popular with young people. But I think it's the most interesting kind of music. The songs tell great stories about people's lives, and about our history and culture. Some of these songs have been around for hundreds of years. Every country has its own folk music and I think it's a great way to learn about your culture.

Tell us about your new song.

I've always been interested in old folk stories from Europe. My favourite is the English legend of Robin Hood. It has everything that makes a good story – drama, action and humour – so I decided to write a song about it.

How do you write your songs?

The story is the most important part. All folk songs have a narrative – a story. My song starts with, 'As I was walking'. I think about where I am, who I'm with and what we're doing. Then I think about what I'm going to do next and the story starts to develop. Next, I think about the tune and rhythm of the song – is it happy and fast, or sad and slow?

We know you play the guitar. Do you play any other instruments?

I play the piano, too, and I'm going to learn the accordion next year. Everyone says it will be difficult, but I disagree – it's quite similar to the piano.

What are your plans for the future?

I'm going to promote my music through social media so that more people can hear it. And I'm going to continue to tour and perform, of course! We're playing here at the Trocadero tonight. Listen! Can you hear the guitars? We're going to start in a few minutes.

After the concert, we asked Martin one last question: 'What will the future of folk music be?' He said: 'That's impossible to predict, but I hope it will always be popular because of how important it is for our history and culture.'

The legend of Robin Hood

As I was walking with my daughter,
One sunny day in spring.
We stopped to drink some water,
When we heard some children sing.

(Chorus)

*Robin Hood, Robin Hood,
The man who helped the poor.
He lived in secret in the woods,
A hero in folklore.*

They told the tale of Robin Hood,
A local man, they'd heard.
His arms were strong, his heart was good,
And justice was his word.

He lived in Sherwood Forest,
And he wore a big green hood.
He was noble, he was honest,
And gave help to all he could.

Why is folk music important for different cultures?

Lesson 2 Reading comprehension

Working with words

Prefixes: (im- and dis-)

You can often change the meaning of a word by adding a prefix. Many negative words start with the prefix un-. Others begin with im- or dis-. The prefix im- comes before a word beginning with p or m:

immature      disagree

Make these words negative by adding im- or dis-. Then check your answers in a dictionary.

5 Work in pairs. Discuss the questions. Give reasons for your answers.

- Do you know any of these songs? If yes, do you like them? If not, would you like to listen to any of them?
- Which songs make you feel happy?

Learning to learn

Understanding rhythm in a song

Songs follow a pattern. You stress certain syllables (parts of words) or words in each line. 'Stress' means you say them more strongly. This creates a rhythm, or pattern. In a song, this is called the 'beat'. In this song verse, the blue syllables and words are stressed:

It's such a bore! It's all the same,
 I've finished my computer game.
 I've read my books from front to back,
 And listened to a whole soundtrack.

Read the verse out loud and clap the rhythm. Then count the syllables in each line. How many are there?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8
 It's such a bore! It's all the same.

1 7.4 Where is the girl? How does she feel? Listen to the song. What's the problem?

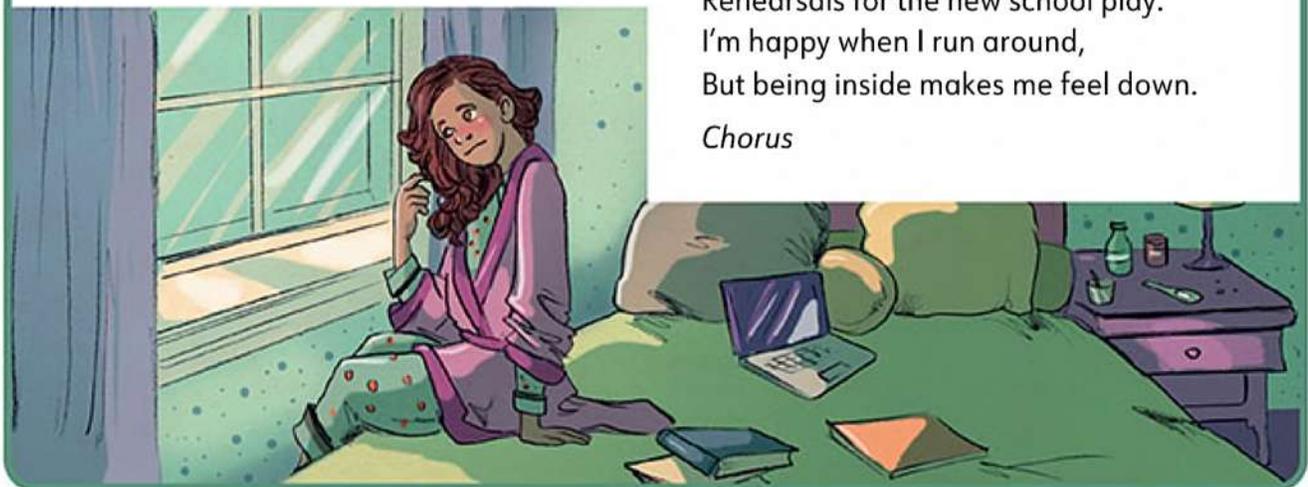

It's such a bore! It's all the same,
 I've finished my computer game.
 I've read my books from front to back,
 And listened to a whole soundtrack.
*I thought it would be fun at first,
 But being ill is just the worst!*

I watch the clock, I wait for when,
 My friends will be online again.
 They'll tell me stories of their day,
 But I'll have nothing new to say.

Chorus

I'm missing art and maths today,
 Rehearsals for the new school play.
 I'm happy when I run around,
 But being inside makes me feel down.

Chorus

2 Write a title for the song.

3 Look at the song lyrics again. Answer the questions.

- 1 Which words rhyme? Find and underline.
- 2 How many verses are there?
- 3 Which part is the chorus?
- 4 What is the difference between a verse and the chorus? Match.

1 verse

2 chorus

a is repeated a few times

b tells the story

c describes actions and events

d describes the main idea of the song

4 Work as a class. Write a new verse for the song. Follow the instructions.

- Use the plan below to help you.
- Use the words in the box or your own ideas.
- Think about which words need to rhyme.
- Think about the number of syllables in each line.

It's been days, but feels like _____,

A stranger to the rescue

Characters

Roger, a villager

Joan, his wife

Ava, their daughter

Henry, a farmer

A man

Scene 1

A leafy forest in England. A farmer is on his way to the village market when he finds a horse and cart in the middle of the path.

Henry: Good morning! What's happened here?

Roger: A tree fell over during the night and it's blocking the path. We have to get to the market to sell our vegetables.

Henry: Oh, no! How long have you been here?

Joan: Since 7 o'clock this morning! We don't know what to do.

Henry: Have you tried lifting the tree out of the way yet?

Joan: Yes, we have, but it's too heavy.

Henry: I'm sure your horse is strong enough to move the tree. Why don't you untie the horse and then tie these leather straps around the tree?

Roger: OK.

Henry: Now I'll get the horse to pull while you push the tree from the other side. One, two, three ... go!

Ten minutes later ...

Henry: Oh, dear! This isn't working. The tree is too heavy for the horse to pull!

Roger: And I've hurt my back! Ouch!

Ava: Now what are we going to do?

Henry: Hmm. Maybe we could go through the tree. Have you got any tools in your cart?

Joan: (looking inside the cart and holding up an axe) We've got this.

Ava: What is it?

Joan: It's an axe. It's used for cutting wood. It will cut the tree in half in no time! Come on! Who's feeling energetic?

Roger takes the axe from his wife and starts to cut the tree.

One hour later ...

Roger: This isn't going to work. The axe is too small and it isn't sharp enough. We'll be here until midnight! What are we going to do now?

Joan: I know! Let's make a fire and burn the tree.

Henry: Burn the tree? That's too dangerous. We're in the middle of a forest - we'll burn down the whole forest!

Joan: No, we won't. We'll only make a very small fire underneath the tree. Come on, let's try.

They all start collecting leaves and branches from the forest floor.

15 minutes later ...

Ava: Look! The branches aren't going to catch fire, they're too wet. What are we going to do now?

Henry: I'm going to look for help. I've heard there's a community of people who live in this forest and help people in trouble. (runs off into the forest)

- Roger: (politely) Yes, we have.
- Henry: And we've tried cutting it in half.
- Ava: And we've tried burning it!
- Joan: But nothing worked and now we don't know what to do!
- Man: Hmm ... have you tried going over the tree yet?
- Roger: No, we haven't. That's a very clever idea ... but how do we do it?
- Man: First, we need to take all the vegetables out of the cart ... Now I need each person to stand next to a wheel. (they all move quickly to each corner of the cart) OK, lift the wheels together - one, two, three. Now we can lift the cart over the tree.
- Roger: (sounding excited) It's working!
- Joan: We did it! Now we can put the vegetables back in the cart and we won't be late for market!
- Man: Just remember - there's always a way to solve a problem, especially when you work together!
- Everyone: Thank you!
- Man: You're welcome. If you ever need help again, you know where to find me. The name is Hood, Robin Hood.
(Everyone gasps in surprise)

- 2 What animal is in the story?
- 3 Who do you think the main characters are?

2  8.1 Read the story quickly and check your ideas in Activity 1.

3  What do you think the main message of the story is? Be a star!

4 Look at the vocabulary box. Find the words in the text. Use the context to work out what they mean.

The perfect swan

There was once a Chinese emperor named Zhang Wei. He was a strong and powerful man, but he was also kind and took care of his people. However, there was one problem – he had a bad temper and became angry very quickly.

Zhang Wei loved art. He owned thousands of paintings, but he always wanted one more. One day he asked his assistant, Hong, 'Who is the most famous painter in China?' 'His name is Cheng Li,' replied Hong. 'He's the best artist in the country.'

'Excellent!' said Zhang Wei. 'Do you think he could paint a beautiful swan for me?'

'If you ask him, he'll paint any animal you like,' replied Hong. Zhang Wei invited the artist, Cheng Li, to his palace.

'Cheng Li!' said Zhang Wei. 'Will you paint a picture of a swan for me?'

'Of course,' replied Cheng Li. 'But it will take some time.'

'I understand,' said Zhang Wei. 'You can stay at the palace until you've finished the painting.'

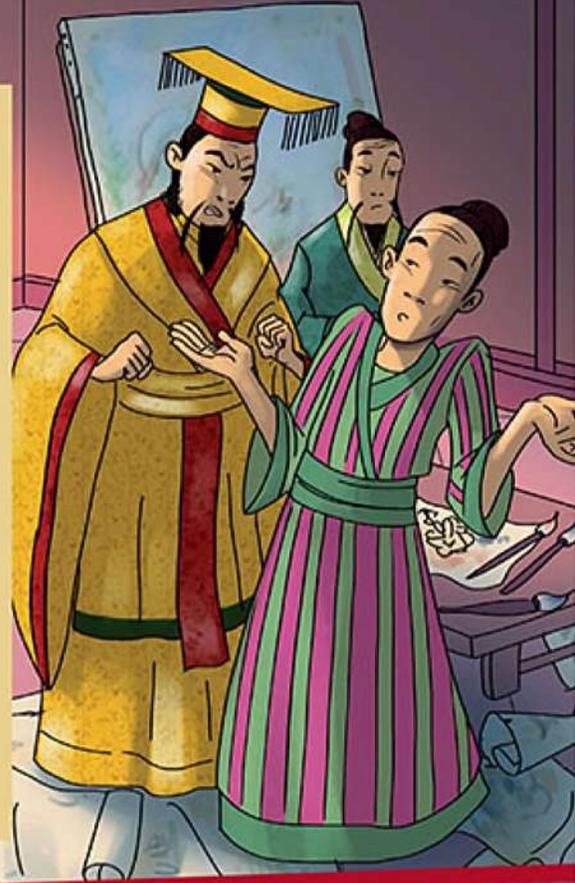

After one year, Zhang Wei visited Cheng Li in his room at the palace.

'Cheng Li!' said Zhang Wei. 'Is my painting ready yet?'

'I'm sorry,' said Cheng Li. 'Swans are not easy to paint. I'm going to need more time. Could you please come back in another year?'

One year later, the emperor returned, but the painting still wasn't ready. Zhang Wei was furious. 'I'll give you one more year!' he shouted. 'If my painting isn't finished, you'll be sorry!'

Another year later, Zhang Wei came back to collect the painting. Cheng Li put a large sheet of paper on the table. Then he took a brush and some ink and painted the most beautiful swan the emperor had ever seen. Zhang Wei was astounded. 'That ... is ... perfect!' he cried. 'It's magnificent!'

But Zhang Wei was still furious. 'I've waited for three years,' he shouted, 'and you painted this swan in two minutes! How dare you make a fool of me!' He was so angry that he sent Cheng Li to a land far away and told him never to return to China.

A week later, Zhang Wei told his servants to empty Cheng Li's room in the palace. Zhang Wei was astonished when his servants found thousands of paintings of swans. The emperor suddenly realised his mistake. Cheng Li wasn't slow or lazy. He had practised every day for three years until he learnt how to paint the perfect swan.

Zhang Wei had made a terrible mistake because of his bad temper. He sent a message to Cheng Li to say sorry and invited him to come back to China. Cheng Li forgave Zhang Wei and returned to live in the palace as the emperor's royal painter.

Lesson 2 Reading comprehension

1 Read the story on pages 96–97 again. Write T (True) or F (False). Underline information in the story to support your answers.

- 1 Cheng Li was a good artist. T
- 2 He took three years to paint the swan. —
- 3 It took him a long time to paint the swan because he was lazy. —
- 4 Swans are easy to paint. —
- 5 Zhang Wei was furious because the painting wasn't good. —
- 6 Zhang Wei was sorry that he sent Cheng Li away. —

2  Who do you think said these things in the story? Circle Z (Zhang Wei) or C (Cheng Li).

- 1 I want the best picture of a swan in China. (Z) / C
- 2 A perfect picture will take a very long time to paint. Z / C
- 3 The swan is not perfect yet, you must wait longer. Z / C
- 4 You have made me look stupid so I'm going to send you away. Z / C
- 5 I tried to do my best. I don't understand why he's angry with me. Z / C
- 6 I made a terrible mistake. Z / C

3   Work in pairs. Discuss the questions. Be a star!

Learning to learn

Recognising different points of view

Every story has a narrator (the storyteller). The narrator tells us about the characters, actions and setting of the story. The narrator usually tells the story from one of these points of view:

- In first person: the narrator is usually a main character and uses I or we. The reader knows the narrator's thoughts and actions.
- In third person: the narrator is more like an observer of all the characters and uses he, she, it or they. I or we is only used in direct speech.

Look back at The perfect swan. Answer the questions.

- 1 Is it a first person or third person narrative? How do you know?
- 2 Give two examples of how the narrator tells us how the characters feel.

1 Look and read.

First conditional

If you rest, you'll feel better.

If I stop, I won't finish my house.

If you don't rest, you'll get ill.

2 Underline the correct options to complete the sentences.

- 1 If my friend comes / will come later, we'll go to the park.
- 2 If we go to the park, we see / will see the swans on the lake.
- 3 We'll stay at home if it rains / will rain.
- 4 If he arrives / will arrive late, I'll be furious.
- 5 I won't finish / finish my homework if you don't turn off the TV.
- 6 If you don't go to bed early, you feel / will feel tired tomorrow.

Look!

The if clause can go at the end of a sentence, too. When it goes second, don't use a comma:
You'll get ill if you don't rest.

3 Work in pairs. Play the If ... game. Be a star!

- A Look at page 149. B Look at page 151.
- Complete the sentences in the table. Then take turns to choose and share the sentence you finished. Did you both have the same answers? A starts.

If it's sunny tomorrow, I'll go to the park.

If it's sunny tomorrow, I'll go for a walk.

Once there was a poor farmer. He didn't have any money and he was hungry all the time. One day he discovered a special goose on his farm. The goose was fat with lots of white feathers. Every day it laid a golden egg. The eggs were beautiful and shiny, and the farmer was very happy. The farmer sold the eggs and became rich. He had food and a warm house, and he didn't have to work on his farm anymore. But he was very greedy. He didn't want to wait for just one egg each day. He wanted all the golden eggs at once. The farmer opened the goose's mouth. He reached deep inside the goose to find more golden eggs, but there weren't any! After that, the goose never laid another golden egg.

Synonyms

Synonyms are words that mean the same. For example, big and large or fast and quickly. When you write, try not to repeat the same words. Think of synonyms to make your writing more varied and interesting.

Look at the story on pages 96–97. Find synonyms for these words.

2 Read and check your answers to Activity 1. Which book would you most like to read? Give two reasons for your answer.

The Three Musketeers: In 1625, a poor but brave young man travels to Paris to join the King's Guards. Together with his new friends Athos, Porthos and Aramis, he has many exciting adventures along the way.

The Woman in Black: A young lawyer attends the funeral of Mrs Alice Drablow, who lived alone in an old house in the countryside. There he sees a young woman dressed all in black and begins to feel afraid.

I, Robot: In the future, most of the work is done by robots, but there are laws so that humans stay in control. Robots must not hurt humans and they must obey orders from them. But what happens when one robot doesn't agree with these laws?

Processed food – yes or no?

Year 9, Class 3

 PatPotPit77 Did you see the documentary about healthy eating last night? It said some kinds of processed food are bad for you. Processed food is food which is changed in some way when it's made. Not all processed foods are bad, but the problem is that sometimes chemicals are added to the food to keep it fresh. Processed food can have a lot of salt, sugar and fat, too. We shouldn't eat lots of it.

What kinds of food are processed? Lots of things – bread, biscuits, but also cheese and even meat! The chemicals can be bad for you, so I'm just going to eat fresh food now. 🥗

Mark301

I saw the documentary, too. The problem with fresh food is that it doesn't stay fresh - you can't eat it after a week. We need to have food that can stay in a supermarket for two or three weeks. 📺 That's why chemicals are added. It's not wrong to eat some processed food.

Butterfly21

I agree with PatPotPit. We eat too many processed foods, and they are making us ill. I'm vegetarian. People who eat vegetarian diets don't eat meat. I don't eat processed foods either, and I'm really healthy. 😊

Penny62

I don't agree with vegetarians. I like eating meat. We're people. We eat meat. That's it. Don't let the media tell you what to do. 😏

KevinNevin

There are lots of vegetarians and vegans now - about 80 million people! Vegans don't eat meat, cheese, or drink yoghurt or milk. They all feel better for not eating meat or dairy products. 🌱

Stefan98

But vegans eat some processed foods! I think it's dangerous to stop eating meat. We get protein and vitamins and other good things from meat. If you stop eating meat, you won't have energy and you might get ill. We have eaten meat for thousands of years. Why stop now? 🤔

Alison8

Pat's right. Some processed food is bad for you. We need to make good choices about what we eat. We shouldn't eat many snack foods like crisps and biscuits 🍟 🍪, and we should eat lots of fruits and vegetables.

PatPotPit77

I'm sorry, I disagree with some of your opinions. I don't think we should all be vegetarians or vegans. I think we should just eat less processed food. But thanks, everyone, for joining in ...

Why is it important to listen to other people's opinions?

Lesson 2 Reading comprehension

1 Read the group chat on pages 108–109 again. Who said these things?

- 1 I watched an interesting documentary last night. PatPotPit
- 2 Processed foods are making us ill. _____
- 3 I like eating meat. _____
- 4 Lots of people are vegetarians or vegans. _____
- 5 Meat is important for our diet. _____
- 6 I think Pat is right. _____

2 We use words in discussions with positive or negative meanings, because they help our argument. Look at the text.

Are these words positive (+) or negative (×)? Be a star!

- |           |          |             |   |

| 4 good    | —        | 9 dangerous | — |
| 5 wrong   | —        |             |   |

-  I think that ...  In my opinion, ...  I like eating / I don't like eating ...
-  We need ...  Vegetarian food is ...

Working with words

Word groups: related words

Identifying related words is a useful way to help you work out the meaning of new words. For example: I think the advertisers are to blame. You know the word advert – what do you think advertisers means? The people who make adverts! If you look in a dictionary, you will also find the verb advertise. So that's three words you've learnt from one.

Find a word related to these words in the text on pages 108–109. Use your dictionary to find a third word for each.

- 1 good _____ 2 healthy _____ 3 agree _____

Learning to learn

Using topic sentences

An essay is divided into paragraphs. Each paragraph discusses a different topic. A good essay contains topic sentences. A topic sentence is usually the first sentence in a paragraph. It introduces the main idea of the paragraph so the reader knows what it will be about. Topic sentences give your essay structure and make your arguments clearer.

Read the essay in Activity 1. Write the topic sentences in the correct places.

- a Secondly, I don't agree that we should cut any food from our diet.
- b ~~Every day we hear about another food that is bad for our health.~~
- c In my opinion, people shouldn't listen to the media.
- d Firstly, I think a small amount of sugar is good for you.

1 Read Bart's opinion essay again and choose the best title.

- 1 Is sugar bad for your health?
- 2 Should we listen to the media for advice about food?
- 3 Should people eat what they want?

1 Every day we hear about another food that is bad for our health.

One week it's meat and the next it's bread. Now sugar is in the news, but I don't believe that the media are always right.

2 _____

A sweet snack can give you energy when you feel tired. When I'm sad, my mum gives me some chocolate to make me feel better.

3 _____

I believe that it's important to eat a variety of food from different food groups, and to eat the right amount to stay healthy.

4 _____

They should make their own food choices. Meat, bread and even sugar are important in our diet, but we need to be careful that we don't eat too much.

2 Answer the questions.

- 1 Does Bart agree with what the media say about unhealthy food?
- 2 What arguments does he give to support his opinion?

3 Underline the phrases in the essay that Bart uses to give his opinion.

I don't believe that the media are always right.

4 Bart divided his essay into four paragraphs. Match each paragraph to its purpose.

- |                |  |
|----------------|--|
| 1 Introduction | a Give a first argument to support your opinion. |
| 2 Main body 1  | b Summarise your arguments.                      |

6 Use the plan in Activity 5 to write your class essay. Use some of the phrases below. Be a star!

Look!

To introduce opinions:

I think / don't think that ...

I believe / don't believe that ...

I agree / disagree that ...

In my opinion, ...

To order arguments:

First / Firstly / First of all

Secondly / In addition, ...

1 Prepare for a class debate. The motion is 'We should have one afternoon of sport at school every week.' Are the statements F (For) or A (Against) the motion? Add two more ideas.

- 1 doing sport means we lose learning time   A
- 2 young people need exercise to stay healthy and strong
- 3 sport is unfair - some people are better than others
- 4 sport teaches us to follow rules
- 5 people can get hurt when they do sport
- 6 sport teaches us to work together in teams
- 7 we need to buy more equipment and that's expensive
- 8 people should have the choice to do sport or not
- 9 _____
- 10 _____

2 Work in pairs. Prepare a one-minute speech. Choose a side - for or against the motion - and practise what to say. Use the phrases.

I think that ...
 I believe / don't believe that ...
 In my opinion, ...
 I agree / disagree ...
 I see what you mean, but ...

3 Debate the motion as a class. Follow the instructions. Be a star!

- 1 Work in two teams: one team is for the motion, the other is against.
- 2 A speaker from the for team starts the debate. This is followed by a speaker from the against team.
- 3 Speakers from each team continue to take turns.
- 4 Each speaker talks for one minute.

4 Have a class vote. Is the class for or against the motion?

1 Imagine that your school has won a £20,000 prize. How will you spend the money? Match options a-d to arguments 1-4.

- a Improve the food in the school canteen.
- b Buy new sports equipment.
- c Buy new books for the library.
- d Buy a tablet for every student.

- 1 Technology is the future. _____
- 2 It's a great place to get information. _____
- 3 A healthy body means a healthy mind. _____
- 4 A good brain needs healthy food.   a

2 Work in pairs. Look at options a-d in Activity 1 again. What's the best way to spend £20,000? Number the options 1-4: 1 = most important, 4 = least important.

3 Write three supporting arguments for your number 1 option in Activity 2.

Option a: Improve the food in the school canteen

- The canteen will be a more popular place.
- Students will learn better if they eat healthy food.
- Health is more important than books or technology.

4  Work in groups. Use your arguments to persuade the rest of the group that your option is the best way to spend £20,000.

I think it's important that students have a healthy lunch every day. They'll learn better if they eat healthy food.

In my opinion, technology is more important in the 21st century.

1  9.4 Read the article on pages 118–120. What stories does the text talk about?

The power of stories

Stories are an important part of every culture. There have always been stories. Even before there were languages, people used pictures, signs and sounds to tell stories. Stories express our values, experiences, hopes and dreams, and help us to understand the world around us. Do you remember your favourite stories when you were very young, the ones you always wanted your parents to read to you ‘just one more time’? We all need to hear and tell stories, but how did it all begin?

The start of storytelling

Thousands of years ago, people used to sit around their fires at night. There were no books or television, so talking was the only entertainment. They asked questions about things they did not understand, such as, ‘Where does fire come from?’ Over time, people developed stories that answered these questions.

Before there was writing, it wasn’t possible to record stories. People learnt the stories of their culture and told them to their children, who told them to their children. This is called ‘oral storytelling’. Without writing, it is how stories are shared over the years and never forgotten.

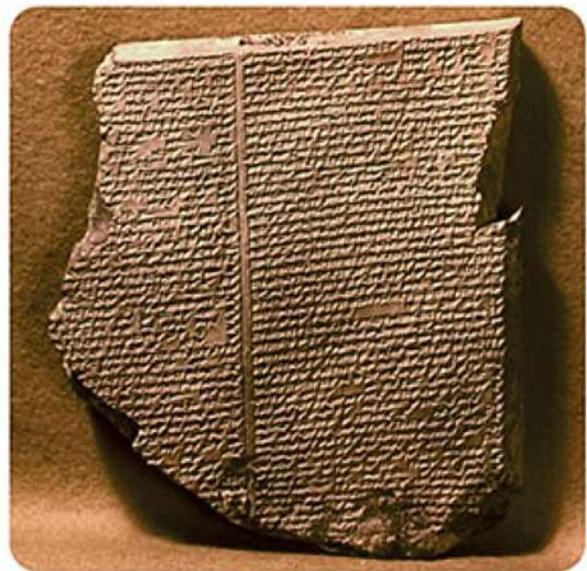

The earliest forms of storytelling included chants, songs, poems and dance. For example, the Aboriginal people of Australia have shared their stories for thousands of years through very long songs, which also provide a 'map' of the landscape. These are called 'songlines' and they describe the position of natural features, such as rivers, rocks and trees, across the land. This helped people to find their way and travel great distances.

▲ Aboriginal art representing a songline

The oldest stories

Writing appeared around 5,000 years ago in Mesopotamia (modern Iraq and Syria). The first writing system was called 'cuneiform'. One of the oldest written stories is The Epic of Gilgamesh. An epic is a long poem about an important person or hero. Gilgamesh was a powerful king in the city of Uruk in Mesopotamia. He lived for a very long time and had many great adventures. The stories were originally oral tales, but over 5,000 years ago people started to collect them and write them on clay tablets in cuneiform.

▲ A clay tablet showing part of The Epic of Gilgamesh

Other stories that began thousands of years ago are still famous all over the world. The Mahabharata is one of the most important epics of India and is described as the longest poem ever written. It's about the adventures of two groups of princes. At the beginning of the story, the author, Vyasa, tells the reader, 'If you listen carefully, at the end you'll be someone else.'

The Thousand and One Nights is a collection of stories from the Middle East and South Asia. Scholars started to write down the stories around 1,200 years ago. Many famous and much-loved tales, such as Aladdin, Sinbad and Ali Baba, are from The Thousand and One Nights.

Storytelling in the 21st century

We see and hear stories every day without knowing it. We all know that stories are found in books and films, but did you know that many adverts tell stories? Companies understand how powerful storytelling is and use it to sell their products. This works for many reasons. Stories create experiences and feelings, and we remember these better than facts. Stories create connections between people, so the connection between us (the customers) and the company is much stronger. People share stories, so we tell all our friends about the fantastic new product we have found out about.

Storytelling affects our lives in many different ways. Beginning many thousands of years ago, and continuing into the 21st century, it is the most important tradition we have.

1 Read the article on pages 118–120 again. Match the descriptions to the stories.

- |   |                                      |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| 1 It's about two groups of princes.                         | a Aboriginal songlines               |
| 2 It contains many famous stories, such as Aladdin . | b adverts                            |
| 3 It's about a powerful king in Mesopotamia.                | c The Mahabharata             |
| 4 They persuade us to buy a product.                        | d The Thousand and One Nights |
| 5 They provide a 'map' to help people find their way.       | e The Epic of Gilgamesh       |

2 Find and underline the answers to the questions in the text.

- 1 What is oral storytelling? Why is it important?
- 2 How do Aboriginal songlines also work as 'maps'?
- 3 How long ago did writing first appear? Where?
- 4 What is the longest poem ever written? Who wrote it?
- 5 Why do companies use storytelling in adverts?

3 Work in pairs. Discuss and follow the instructions.

- What were your favourite stories when you were very young? Make a list of three stories that you remember.
- Compare your list with a partner. How many stories are the same?
- Compare your lists as a class. How many stories are there altogether? How many of them do you know?
- What do these results tell you about stories?

4 Work in pairs. Discuss the questions. Give reasons for your answers.

- 1 Why do you think Vyasa said, 'If you listen carefully [to the Mahabharata], at the end you'll be someone else'?
- 2 Have you ever read a story that made you feel like this? If yes, which one?
- 3 What adverts can you think of that tell a story?
- 4 Where else can you find stories in the 21st century?

Sergeant Stone, her assistant

Timothy Taylor, a teacher

- Inspector Williams: Do we know what time it happened?
- Sergeant Stone: Yes, it was at exactly five o'clock. There was a camera in the art room. It took a photograph of a person in a black jacket and trousers.
- Inspector Williams: It didn't get a photo of the person's face?
- Sergeant Stone: It's never that easy, is it?
- Inspector Williams: No, it's not, I agree. Who are those three?
- Sergeant Stone: They are the only people who know the entry code to the art room.
- Inspector Williams: Oh?
- [They walk into the interview room.]
- Inspector Williams: Good morning. I'm Inspector Williams, and I'm investigating this robbery. I'm here to take your statements. Can you tell me why you know the entry code to the art room, and what you were doing at five o'clock yesterday?
- Peter Cross: Yesterday? You mean Wednesday the 3rd?
- Inspector Williams: Exactly.
- Peter Cross: I was on a train at five o'clock. I was going to London for work. I know the entry code to the room because I study old paintings. Just a minute – we aren't suspects, are we?
- Inspector Williams: We don't know who is a suspect at the moment, sir. We are just finding out what happened. How about you? You know the entry code, don't you?
- Timothy Taylor: I know the code because I talk about this painting in class. But at five o'clock yesterday I was in the university café. I think I have a receipt.
- Lucy Manders: I know the code too. I'm doing a special project on this painting. But I was playing football yesterday afternoon at five o'clock.
- [Later]
- Inspector Williams: Look at these newspapers, Sergeant. Very interesting, aren't they?
- Sergeant Stone: What's interesting, ma'am?

Power cut hits homes and trains

A huge power cut hit millions of homes yesterday. For 24 hours all homes in the area had no electricity. Traffic lights didn't work and the traffic stopped. All trains to and from London were cancelled, and schools sent their children home. 'It was terrible,' said Mark Warner, who was on the 12.00 train to London. 'Every train was cancelled. There were no trains at all for twelve hours.'

Lucy wins it again!

Lucy Manders scored again against York University in yesterday's exciting match. The match started late at 4.30 pm because one of the teams had problems travelling because of a power cut. But that didn't worry Lucy, who scored three goals in the first half to win the game over York.

Self-motivation for passing end-of-year tests and exams

Sometimes an exam can seem difficult to complete. If you worry about tests and exams, it is important to think about how a test or exam works, and to be persistent as you study. That means that you keep trying even when you find something challenging. Follow these tips:

- 1 You may receive a practice test. This will help you understand what the test will look like, how many questions there might be and what kinds of questions they are – listening, reading and writing or speaking.
- 2 What do you most need to practise – listening, reading and writing or speaking? Work with a friend or family member, or ask your teacher if there are example exams you can use.
- 3 Be positive and patient as you practice. Keep trying! Remember times when you have completed a difficult test in the past. What did you do to help you finish the exam well?
- 4 Can you help others feel more confident about exams? Write one sentence of advice for another student.

1   10.4 Listen to a mystery story. Why didn't the man report the crime? Ask your teacher questions to solve the mystery.

- Your questions can only be answered 'yes' or 'no'.
- You can ask for a clue if you are unsure.
- You can guess – but clever questions are better.

Mystery 1

A strange thing happened yesterday. A man came out of a bank, went into the station and got on a train. He was carrying a big leather bag. When the train arrived at his station, he stood up and walked to the doors. Then guess what ... while he was getting off the train, someone took his bag and ran away. The man ran after him, but he couldn't catch him. Suddenly, a police car arrived. A police officer got out and asked the man, 'Do you want to report a crime?' You won't believe this, but the man said, 'No, thank you,' and went back into the station to catch the next train. Why do you think he didn't report the robbery?

2 Work in pairs. Choose mystery 2 or 3. Make it into a story like the one in Activity 1. Use the phrases to help you.
