Lesson 6 / Learning to learn

1 Read the essay and choose the best title. Tick (✓).

- a Should school canteens provide more choice?
- b Should children eat snacks at school?
- c Are school meals healthy enough?

What we eat at school is ¹ important for our health.

Millions of children around the world eat lunch at school and this can affect their health. School meals are often in the news because people think they should be healthier. I believe that the situation is different in every school.

² _____

Pupils make choices from a menu including burgers, pizza and chips. Canteens sell snacks like chocolate bars or crisps, which are full of sugar or salt. Pupils often drink fizzy drinks, which contain several teaspoons of sugar.

However, ³ _____.

There is a choice of healthy options like salads, vegetables and fresh fruit. Unhealthy fast food is not on the menu and pupils eat food with less sugar and salt. A snack could be a healthy apple.

In my opinion, ⁴ _____.

If pupils have a healthy diet, they will feel more energetic and their school work will improve. It is also important for pupils to make healthy choices about the meals and snacks they eat at school. Next time you feel like chocolate, try an apple!

Mystery at the sports centre

My name is Daniel and I love doing sport. My favourite hobby is tennis – I play every weekend and I'm really good at it. Last weekend I was in a tennis competition at a sports centre. Our PE teacher, Mr Hedge, organised a trip there for the players.

'You can bring lunch if you want to,' he said. 'But you don't have to because there's a cafeteria at the sports centre.'

It took a long time to get there because the competition was in another city in the north of the country. After about two hours, we finally arrived at the sports centre. I got changed and left my things in a locker. I didn't lock it because there wasn't anything valuable there. I played in two tennis matches in the morning. At lunchtime I went back to the locker room. I opened my locker to get my packed lunch, but my tuna sandwiches weren't there! I couldn't find them anywhere.

'Where are they?' I asked Paul. 'It's a mystery!'

'They might be on the bus,' he said. We went outside and looked on the bus, but they weren't there. So we went to the cafeteria to buy some lunch.

Half an hour later, Paul and I went back to the locker room. A large, fat cat was sitting outside looking very happy. There was a bit of a tuna sandwich next to the cat!

'Aha!' said Paul. 'We've solved the mystery, haven't we!'
