- Read the task and all the options carefully.
- Read the paragraphs of the text carefully one by one and match them to the correct option.
- Check that the extra options do not match any of the paragraphs.

4 Read the Reading Strategy. Then match the questions below with paragraphs 1–3 of the text. There is one extra question.

In which paragraph does the writer tell us ...

- when the first operation happened? ☐
- why Lenkei needed an operation on his arm? ☐
- what Lenkei did just before the operation on his arm? ☐
- on what part of his body the third operation was? ☐
- when Doctor Llewellyn-Clerk realised that Lenkei was not in pain? ☐
- when Lenkei first hypnotised someone? ☐
- what happens to pain signals in his body while he is hypnotised? ☐
- when Lenkei had his second operation? ☐
- how long the operation on his arm took? ☐
- what the doctor did to Lenkei's arm during the operation? ☐

3 Read the text. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- Lenkei took about half an hour to hypnotise himself. ☐
- Lenkei didn't speak during the operation. ☐
- All the operations were successful. ☐

It didn't hurt!

- In 2008, Alex Lenkei had a problem with the bone in his arm and he needed a serious operation. Normally, with an operation like that, the doctor gives the patient an anaesthetic so that he or she doesn't feel any pain. But Lenkei refused the anaesthetic. Instead, he hypnotised himself and simply told himself that he could not feel any pain. That took about thirty seconds. Then the operation started. According to Mr Lenkei, pain signals do not reach his brain when he is hypnotised.

- The doctor, David Llewellyn-Clerk, was a bit worried. He had to take some bone from Lenkei's arm. He watched Lenkei carefully during the operation, as he wasn't sure that Lenkei could feel no pain. 'I didn't think Mr Lenkei could hear us,' said Dr Llewellyn-Clerk, 'but half way through the operation, he said "How's it going?"' That's when the doctor realised that Lenkei was not in pain. The operation lasted 83 minutes.

- Mr Lenkei started hypnotising people when he was sixteen and is now an expert. It wasn't his first operation without anaesthetic. In 1996, a friend hypnotised him before a thirty-minute operation on his stomach. Both operations were successful, so Lenkei had a third operation without anaesthetic in 2013, this time on his ankle, which also went well.

Reading

Strategy

Read the text all the way through first so that you get a good general understanding before you try to answer the questions.

1 Read the Strategy. Then read the text in exercise 2. Choose the best summary (a–c).

- a The text describes what teenagers believe makes them happy.
- b The text gives tips for teenagers about different ways to be happy.
- c The text gives some information about how young people feel.

2 Read the text again. Circle the correct answer: True (T), False (F) or Doesn't say (DS).

Happiness is ... ? Your survey says ...

So you're between the ages of thirteen and eighteen. What makes you happy? There have been lots of surveys about teenagers and happiness and they all come to different conclusions. Some surveys say that most young people are happiest when they spend time with their family. Others say it's when they're with friends. Some teenagers think that getting good marks at school and passing exams makes them happy and others feel that it's having a boyfriend or girlfriend that improves their lives. The problem is that there isn't just one thing that makes everyone happy. Happiness is something different for each of us, and what made us happy last week might not make us happy next week!

However, there are some things that can help improve our mood when we're feeling unhappy. Experts believe that exercise can make you a happier person – but how? Exercise releases chemicals in your brain that are related to a feeling of pleasure. Many people who exercise say that the more exercise they do, the more they want to do. Now we know why! In addition to this, exercise is also good for our physical health. So, if we know that we're doing something healthy, that should make us even happier!

There's another surprising idea to help make us happier. Although you might think that eating chocolate is bad for you, it seems that it is good to eat chocolate when we're feeling sad. According to some research, experts say that eating chocolate can make us feel happy. Of course it isn't healthy to eat too much, but chocolate releases chemicals in the same way that exercise does – and for some people it's easier and quicker than running several kilometres or working out in the gym!

It's also important to remember that we can't all be happy all the time. There are times in our lives when things are going well and we feel good. But we can also be happy for brief moments and we should value these as well. For example, perhaps you're sitting on a beach watching the sun on the water, with friends around you, and you feel happy. Remember that moment! Or maybe your dog does something silly that makes you laugh. Remember it! And when you feel sad, go for a run or eat some chocolate – you'll soon cheer up!

- 2 The things that make us happy never change. T F DS
- 3 The surveys show that teenagers who do exercise are happier. T F DS
- 4 When we feel depressed it's good to do something active. T F DS
- 5 Exercise and eating chocolate can produce similar results. T F DS

- something interesting you did
- how you felt when you got home
- an invitation to your friend to stay with you for the next school holiday.

Hi David,

How are things? I'm depressed! I went on holiday to the south of France with my family last week and I didn't want to come home! We had a brilliant time.

We travelled by plane to Marseille and then by coach to a seaside town. We stayed in a lovely hotel. It was right on the beach.

One day we went to a small restaurant and we had an amazing meal. We had loads of seafood – delicious! The restaurant was on a hill with a lovely view of the sea. It was really cool.

When we got home yesterday I started to get anxious about my school exams next week. I need to think about another holiday! So, why don't you come and stay with us in the summer? We can have a great time!

Write soon,

Katy

The music industry complains that these downloads are ²_____ (fair) to artists because they stop them earning money from their work. It is ³_____ (possible) to know exactly how much money artists and record companies are losing because many people who download illegally do not have any money to spend. However, one thing is ⁴_____ (certain): overall, the industry is earning a lot less than it earned a few years ago.

STAYING SAFE

When you ask most people about the benefits of apps on their smartphone, they say they use them to play games, surf the net, keep in touch with people and organise social events. But Jenny Harlow, a scientist from London, has got an app that does something much more important: it warns her when she is in danger. The app

- 5 is called Safety Tips and it gives users real-time earthquake and tsunami warnings. The Japan Tourist Agency had the idea for the app after the 2011 earthquake in Japan, when many foreign tourists in the country were confused about what was happening and what they should do. Jenny was on a business trip to Japan when the earthquake struck. 'Although there are a lot of earthquakes in Japan, it was the first time I experienced one.'
- 10 All the warnings and information on the internet, radio and TV were in Japanese, and I couldn't understand. It was really confusing and I didn't know what to do.' She had to rely on Japanese colleagues to help her.

- The Safety Tips app sends an alert to users when a major earthquake happens, and also tells them if a tsunami is likely to arrive at the coast. The app gives lots of tips about what to do, where to go
- 15 and how to stay safe, as well as a list of useful Japanese phrases such as 'Is this an earthquake?' and 'Is it safe here?' Importantly, all the information is in English, and there are plans to add other languages. The Japan Tourist Agency plans to advertise the app at airports and tourist information centres in Japan. In order to get the app, people visit a website and download it. 'I'm coming to Japan again next year and I will definitely watch out for alerts from the app,' says Jenny.

Extract from Gulliver's Travels

When I left college, I continued my studies and became a doctor. I was born in Nottinghamshire and was the third of five sons. My father was not a rich man, but he was able to send me to Cambridge University, where I studied for three years. But I always wanted to travel, and so I made several voyages as a ship's doctor. When I married my wife Mary, however, I planned to stay at home for a while. I decided to go to sea again, and this time I joined a ship sailing to the islands in the South Pacific Ocean. But after a few years I discovered I was not earning enough money from my patients. We started our journey from Bristol on May 4th, 1699.

Extract from Gulliver's Travels

We sailed across the Atlantic, round the coast of Africa and into the Indian Ocean. But before we could reach the Pacific, a violent storm hit us and drove us to the north-west of Tasmania. ¹ _____ Some of the sailors and I managed to get a boat into the water, and we rowed away to look for land. But when we were too tired to row any more, a great wave hit our small boat, and we all fell into the sea. ² _____

The wind and waves pushed me along as I struggled to keep my head above water. ³ _____ Luckily, just then my feet touched the ground. I walked out of the sea and on to a beach, where there was no sign of any people or houses. I was so exhausted that I lay down and went to sleep.

When I woke up next morning, and tried to get up, I could not move. I was lying on my back and my whole body, my arms and legs were strongly fastened to the ground. ⁴ _____

The sun began to grow hot, and I was very uncomfortable. Soon I felt something alive moving along my leg and up my body to my face, and when I looked down, I saw a very small human being, only fifteen centimetres tall. He had a bow and arrow in his hands, and there were forty more of these little men following him. ⁵ _____ They all jumped back, very frightened, and some hurt themselves by falling off my body. Meanwhile, I was struggling to unfasten myself, but just as I managed to pull my left arm free of the ropes, I felt a hundred arrows land on my free hand, and more arrows on my face and body. This was very painful, and made me cry aloud. I lay quietly, to see what would happen next.

⁶ _____ An official climbed up there to speak to me. Although I could not understand his language, I understood that they would be friendly towards me – if I did not try to harm them. By now I was extremely hungry, so I used sign language to beg the official for food. He seemed to understand me, because immediately ladders were put against my sides and little men climbed up with baskets of food and drink. ⁷ _____ In just one mouthful I ate three of their meat dishes and three of their loaves of bread.

- A I do not know what happened to my companions, but I suppose they were all drowned.
- B When they saw I was no longer struggling, they quickly built a platform next to my head.
- C I became very tired and soon felt I could not swim any more.
- D Even my hair, which was long and thick, was tied to the ground.
- E I was so surprised that I gave a great shout.
- F The sky was a cloudless blue and the sea was very calm.
- G They were surprised at how much I could eat and drink.
- H The wind drove our ship on to a rock, which broke the ship in half.

CHECK YOUR WORK

Have you ...

- ☐ covered all the arguments in your plan?
- ☐ used phrases from exercise 3?
- ☐ checked your grammar and spelling?

'Young people are doing more to prevent global warming than older people.'
Do you agree?

I do not believe that this is true. Adults make the most important decisions about global warming, not young people. For example, governments have to decide between fossil fuels and renewable energy. A Furthermore, adults decide how 'green' their lifestyle at home should be: Do they buy a big or small car? Do they live in a big or small house? And so on. B Having said that, young people are often better at remembering to recycle plastic bottles and other containers. What is more, children walk and cycle more often than adults and this causes less pollution. C However, they probably walk and cycle more because they are too young to drive, not because they care about the environment! So all in all, I do not think young people are doing more than older people.

- 2 Look quickly at texts A–C. Match each text with the correct photo (1–3).

WOULD YOU WANT TO DO THIS?

- A Jeff Haslam spends a lot of his time underground. He works in London's sewers – the tunnels under the roads that carry away waste water ... and other, much dirtier things! His job is to keep the sewers clear. 'We work in teams of six,' says Jeff. 'It's very dirty work. And of course we work in the dark.' He has to wear special clothes, a mask and a helmet with a light. 'The most difficult thing is clearing the fat and oil from the sewers under the Chinese and Indian restaurants,' he says. 'Last month we removed 1,000 tonnes of fat!'
- B Many people like to work outdoors, but few would like Charlie Radley's job. Charlie lives in Alaska and works on a fishing boat. Each fishing trip lasts about a week. 'It's extremely cold and often stormy,' says Charlie, 'so we wear warm, waterproof clothes.' Charlie can earn a lot of money if they catch a lot of fish, but if they don't, he earns very little. 'I'll do this job for a year or two more,' says Charlie, 'then I'm going to look for another job – something warmer and drier!'
- C Sandy Smith is a lumberjack – somebody who cuts down trees. Sandy noticed an advertisement for lumberjacks on the internet. Lumberjacks work long hours and are not very well paid, but as Sandy likes to work outdoors, she decided to apply for the job. 'It's a very dangerous job,' says Sandy. 'We work with big, dangerous machines, and we're always a long way from the nearest hospital – so I'm always very careful!'

Reading

Strategy

Sometimes you need to match questions with paragraphs in a reading text. Read each paragraph quickly before you look at the options and try to think what question the paragraph is answering. Then look at the options to see if your idea is there.

1 Read the Strategy. Then read the paragraph below and think of a question that it might answer.

Although four out of five wildfires are caused by people, nature also plays a part. Dry weather, hot temperatures and strong winds combine. Then all you need is a spark in the form of lightning, a broken power line, or a burning campfire. The fire can then last for weeks and spread across thousands of kilometres of land.

2 Read the text and match the interview questions A–F with paragraphs 1–4. There are two extra questions.

- A What is the most dangerous part of being a firefighter?
- B What is the most important personal quality for a firefighter?
- C How physically fit you have to be?
- D How did you become a firefighter?
- E Why did you decide to become a firefighter?
- F What other skills do you need?

1 _____

I'm Jack Gomez, and I'm a firefighter in California. I remember watching an interview with a firefighter pilot when I was a child. He'd been fighting a fire for about five days. He was exhausted, but he was still there, talking about how many lives were being saved. He was so optimistic and committed that I thought that I wanted to do the same thing. And I never changed my mind.

2 _____

I did a training camp to get my wildfire qualification card – you can't fight fires in the US without one. I learned how to light controlled fires, and how to put them out again. I also learned how to use all the equipment. The camp was really hard, but I passed first time – which was a big relief to me! After that I applied for a job, and I was lucky enough to get one.

3 _____

One of the things you have to do in the early days is the pack test. This consists of a five-kilometre walk while carrying a backpack that weights twenty kilograms. You must be able to complete it in forty-five minutes or less without jogging or running. This shows how strong you are. If you can't do this, how can you carry the heavy fire equipment, or fight fires in difficult conditions for hours at a time?

4 _____

You can be out alone in vast forests and national parks, and sometimes the smoke is so thick that you can hardly see. So it's important to be able to know where you're going, to be able to map read, and to use a compass. Also, you must know how to put up a tent, cook outdoors, drive a truck, and have other basic survival skills.

Have you ever been on holiday without your parents?
Would you like to? Read this before you decide ...

SAM

- I come from a strange family. My parents have always believed that we should learn to look after ourselves from an early age. That included holidays. I remember my poor brother went on a canoeing trip on the River Thames with a cousin when they were both just twelve years old. They had a miserable time and have never really recovered from the experience. When I was fifteen, they decided I was old enough to go on holiday with just my best friend. 'You're going to hitch-hike to the Lake District with a tent and a backpack; you're going to camp, up in the mountains, for a week; and then – if you're still alive – you're going to hitch-hike back again.' So we hitch-hiked for hundreds of kilometres, we camped, we got cold and wet and scared, and couldn't afford to buy enough food. But, against the odds, we survived.

HARRIET

- I've been on a number of holidays without my parents, but the first holiday was two years ago, when I was sixteen. Six of us decided to go backpacking in Wales during the school holidays. I booked cheap hotels before we left. The first two days were fine. But at the end of the second day, we lost our way. It was pouring with rain and it was getting dark. We eventually came to a farmhouse and knocked on the door. We were so dirty and wet that they didn't let us into the house. We had to wait in the garage! But they let us phone the hotel. Anyway, the hotel manager kindly sent a car for us. But the next day it was still raining so we decided to take the train home. I've learned why no one goes backpacking in Britain in March – it rains non-stop and the fields are covered in deep mud. I've never had such a miserable time! My holidays since then have been in warm places with dry weather!

7.35 pm @Sam2020

Having a great time on our cycling tour of Provence in the South of France. We arrived on Saturday after a long journey on the train from London. We've cycled about 150 km since Saturday morning and I'm exhausted! Danny is tired too, but he's fitter than I am. The countryside is beautiful, but there are lots of hills!! The weather has been warm and sunny – maybe a little too hot for me. We've stayed at a different place every night so far. Two nights ago we stayed at a farm, and last night we stayed in a small hotel. Staying in a castle tonight, which is amazing! Tomorrow, we're visiting a lake. It's quite a long way from here, in the mountains. We'll stay there all afternoon and go swimming. Looking forward to it! I'll post again in two days.

Writing Strategy

In informal style (e.g. in emails, blogs and postcards) we can omit sentence subjects I and we.

Must go now! Wish you were here!

With the present continuous, we can also omit the auxiliaries am and are.

Having a great time in Italy!

However, only do this once or twice in a text. Do not omit every instance of I and we.

3 Read the Writing Strategy. Then find these sentences in the blog post. What word or words did the writer omit from the start?

- 1 _____ having a great time on our cycling tour ...
- 2 _____ staying in a castle tonight ...
- 3 _____ looking forward to it!

4 Read the sentences below. Cross out the words which could be omitted to make them more informal.

- 1 I wish I could stay here longer!
- 2 I'm taking lots of photos to show you.
- 3 I'll see you soon!

5 Read the task. Then prepare to write your blog post by inventing answers to questions 1–5 below.

You are on holiday with a friend, touring around a country. Write a blog entry with information about:

- where you are touring and how you are travelling
- the weather
- some places you have stayed
- something you plan to do in the next few days.

1 Where are you touring?

2 How are you travelling?

3 What is the weather like?

4 Where have you stayed?

5 What are your plans?

6 Now do the task from exercise 5 using your notes.

An opinion essay

I can write an essay suggesting how to spend €1 million.

Preparation

1 Read the task and the essay. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 Sarah wants a sound system because she hasn't got anything for listening to music. ☐
- 2 Her brother loves football. ☐
- 3 She'd give money to an organisation that helps homeless people. ☐
- 4 She'd spend most of the money. ☐

If you won €1 million in the lottery, what would you do with it? Write an essay and include your ideas. Give reasons for your choices.

If I won €1 million, there are a lot of things I would like to do with the money. It would be nice to buy myself something, but it would also be good to help others.

First of all, I would buy myself a docking station with fantastic speakers. Although I have got an MP3 player and some speakers, they are not very good.

Secondly, I would buy a new car for my mum. Her car is really old. I would buy my brother a Liverpool kit and a scarf. He is a really big Liverpool fan!

Thirdly, there are a lot of homeless people in my city. I would donate money to the local hostel. If I gave them €5,000, they could buy a lot of meals for homeless people.

Finally, I would save at least half of the money. In my opinion, it would be silly to spend it all now. What is more, if I invested the money, it would grow, and I would have more to spend in the future.

To sum up, I would buy something nice for myself and other members of my family, support local charities, and also save some money for the future.

2 Read the Writing Strategy. Then underline the following in the essay:

- 1 one concession clause (starting with Even though, although, etc.).
- 2 three second conditional sentences (with an if clause and a main clause).
- 3 one phrase for introducing an opinion.
- 4 four phrases for listing four points.
- 5 one phrase for introducing an additional point.

Reading

Strategy

After you have made your choice, check your answer by deciding why the other options are wrong.

- 1 Read the Strategy. Then read the text and the question below. Choose the correct option. Sum up in a sentence why each of the other options is incorrect. Underline the part of the text that tells you this. The first one has been done for you.

It isn't 'A' because the writer is planning to start touring again.

Living cheaply in New Zealand

I've been in New Zealand for six months, and, as far as I'm concerned, it's the adventure capital of the world! Hiking, skydiving, caving, ... the list goes on. And it doesn't have to cost a lot to live here. When I arrived, I stayed in a hostel in Auckland. It was cheap, and I met lots of people. I joined up with a few of them and we started touring the country – buses are the cheapest way to get about. We stayed in affordable campsites in the most amazing places. Right now, I'm back in a hostel in Wellington. I'm taking a city break before I start touring again.

- 1 What does the author say about being in New Zealand?
- A He's planning to go home now.
 - B He prefers travelling on his own.
 - C He's spent a lot of money.
 - D He has seen both town and country.

- 2 Now read the three texts. Choose the correct answer (A–D).

How to make money travelling

After I left university, I set out on a three-month trip to Asia. The idea was to travel and then go home and find a job. That was two years ago, and I'm still here! But how, you may ask, can you make money and travel at the same time? I teach English. I also write a travel blog, and that makes money too. I don't have a lot of money, but I can pay my bills. I have friends that do other things, such as hairdressing. There are lots of different ways to make money while you're travelling.

- 1 What does the author say about his experience?
- A He spent three months in Asia.
 - B He now knows what job he wants to train for.
 - C He became very rich.
 - D He changed his plans.

So you want to be a billionaire?

Self-made billionaires have one thing in common: they're good at making money. Most of them will also tell you that this talent is only part of the story. So what else do you need to be a success in the business world? So you want to be a billionaire? helps you understand. The book looks at the careers and methods of the world's most famous self-made billionaires. Each chapter examines how these billionaires made their fortune – and how you can do the same. Read So you want to be a billionaire and open the door to a great future!

- 2 The author of the text wants to ...
- A sell people a book.
 - B explain the life of a billionaire.
 - C encourage readers to write a book about their lives.
 - D describe how he became successful.

The cost of art

Paul Cézanne's painting The Card Players sold for 250 million dollars. Before that, Francis Bacon's work Three Studies of Lucian Freud sold for 142.4 million. The question is: Why would you spend so much on a piece of art? Is it because you want to own something no one else can buy? Here's another story ... Banksy is a street artist whose work can sell for a million dollars. But one day he sold his paintings in Central Park for sixty dollars. The people that bought them didn't know the paintings were by Banksy. Now they have some very valuable works!

- 3 The text gives readers ...
- A reasons for the high price of some art.
 - B information about the cost of art.
 - C ideas on how to make money from art.
 - D advice on the best artists to see.

Speaking

Strategy

When you have to talk on your own about a topic, use your preparation time to think of some ideas for each of the points and decide on the best order to present your ideas.

Writing

Strategy

When writing an essay you need to make sure you structure your work carefully and divide it into paragraphs. Guide the reader through your points by starting your paragraphs with words such as, First of all, Secondly, and Finally.

8 Read the Strategy. Then read the exam task in exercise 9 and the model answer below. Complete the table using the information in the model answer.

Most important improvement:
Reason:
Result:
Second improvement:
Reason:
Result:
Third improvement:
Reason:
Result:

My town is very historic and we get a lot of visitors. There are several things I would improve to attract even more tourists. Here are three of the most important.

First of all, I would improve the parking. In my opinion, this is the most important thing because the town is always full of cars. If there was a car park on the edge of town, tourists could leave their cars there and get a bus into the centre. It would be easier for them and they could enjoy less crowded streets.

Secondly, I would cut the entrance price to museums and art galleries. The tickets can be very expensive, especially for families. If prices were cheaper, more tourists would visit these attractions.

Finally, I would arrange some interesting things for children to do in the park. If there were more activities for children, more families would come to the town.

To conclude, I would improve parking, reduce prices and provide things for children to do. All these things would attract more tourists to our town.

9 Write your essay.

Your town or a town near you is a tourist destination. What improvements would you make to attract even more tourists? Write an essay and include three ideas. Give reasons for your choices and say what effect the improvements would have on tourist numbers.

Include these points:

- say what the most important improvement would be
- choose two more improvements to make
- explain how these things would affect tourists.

2 Read the text. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 A man took a bomb onto a plane. ☐
- 2 The man jumped out of the plane between Portland and Seattle. ☐
- 3 No one knows where the man is now. ☐

Reading Strategy

When you do a multiple-choice task, try to predict the answers just by looking at the beginning of each question, not the options. (It is not always possible, but sometimes you can.) Then look at the options. If one of them matches your prediction, it is probably the correct one. However, you still need to check carefully.

3 Read the Reading Strategy. For questions 1–4, circle the correct option (a–d).

- 1 The man in the suit and raincoat
 - a wanted to fly to Portland.
 - b wanted a return flight to Seattle.
 - c used a false name when he checked in.
 - d got on the plane without a ticket.
- 2 In the note, Cooper
 - a ordered the plane to return to Portland.
 - b asked for a large amount of money.
 - c said he was hijacking the plane.
 - d said he would use the bomb if the passengers tried to leave the plane.
- 3 After leaving Seattle,
 - a Cooper became more nervous, but was always polite.
 - b the plane flew straight to Mexico.
 - c the pilot decided to fly as low as possible.
 - d only six people remained on the plane.
- 4 Since Cooper's jump from the plane,
 - a only one young boy has seen him.
 - b no one has found any of the money.
 - c the police have arrested a lot of suspects.
 - d the police have recovered a small part of the money.

Where is DAN COOPER?

On 24 November 1971, at Portland Airport, a man wearing a suit and a raincoat bought a one-way ticket for the evening flight to Seattle. He checked in and got on the plane. The name on the ticket was Dan Cooper, but that wasn't his real name.

When the plane had taken off, he put on sunglasses and gave the flight attendant a note. The note said that Cooper had a bomb in his suitcase, that he would use it if necessary, and that he was hijacking the plane. He showed the flight attendant the bomb and told her that when the plane landed in Seattle, he wanted $200,000 and four parachutes. He told her that he would let the passengers leave the plane.

When the plane landed, the police gave Cooper the money and the parachutes, and the plane took off again with just Cooper and five members of the crew. The flight attendant said that Cooper wasn't nervous, he didn't get angry, and he seemed to be a nice, polite man. Cooper ordered the pilot to fly low, at about 3,000 metres, towards Mexico. Twenty minutes after taking off, Cooper opened the back door and jumped out of the plane with a parachute and the money.

That was the last time anyone saw Cooper. The police launched an investigation and searched the area where Cooper had jumped – but they found nothing. Ten years later, an eight-year-old boy found some of the money (only $6,000) on a beach nearby. The rest of the money is still missing. Over the years, the police have interviewed hundreds of suspects, but they haven't made any arrests. The real identity of Cooper and what happened to him remain a mystery to this day.

- describe a crime you saw taking place in Paris.
- say how you and your friend reacted to the crime.
- ask for some information.

To: holly@email.com

Dear Holly,

Hope you're well. I stayed with my penfriend Cécile in Paris last week. She lives in a beautiful flat near the Canal Saint-Martin. It's a really trendy part of town. At weekends, lots of young people sit by the river, have picnics and play the guitar.

During my stay with Cécile, we saw a mugging in the centre of town, near the Eiffel Tower. A man grabbed a woman's handbag and ran off with it. Straight away, her boyfriend chased after him, but the street was very crowded. Soon, he gave up.

We both felt quite shocked at first, but the woman didn't seem too upset. After a while, we stopped worrying about it and the rest of the holiday was really enjoyable.

Really looking forward to visiting you next week. Are we going camping? What do I need to bring?

Best wishes,

Keira

before described for on there when why

Witnesses to crimes are not always very good at remembering what they have seen. The appearance of a suspect is often ¹ _____ differently by different witnesses. Part of the problem is that a crime usually happens very quickly, and people often feel very nervous while it is going ² _____. They then can't remember what they have seen, even if it was just the day ³ _____. People also often imagine things when they don't have a clear picture of something or someone. For example, ⁴ _____ a witness says that she saw a man with blonde hair and blue eyes, it's often the case that she didn't actually see the eye colour at all, but she's guessed it because she knows the colour of the man's hair. Of course, this is very frustrating for the police. But now that ⁵ _____ are CCTV cameras in so many places, police officers often have real images to use when witnesses can't remember all the facts.

1 Hippo-Roller, photo _____

Many women and children in Africa spend between three and nine hours a day carrying water to their homes. They use 20-litre plastic buckets, which they carry on their heads. The buckets are very heavy and often cause back and neck injuries. So engineers Pettie Petzer and Johan Jonker designed a 'rolling wheel' which can carry ninety litres of water and is much easier to move. 33,000 'Hippo-Rollers' have been made and delivered to remote villages in Africa. The results are good: women have more time to look after their families, the children have more time at school, and there are fewer injuries.

2 LifeStraw, photo _____

There are 780 million people in the world who don't have clean safe drinking water. This fact led the Swiss company Vestergaard to invent a special kind of straw that allows people to drink dirty water without getting ill. The LifeStraw is a long thin tube that cleans the water as it passes through into somebody's mouth. LifeStraw is very light and can clean up to 1,000 litres of water before you need to replace it. LifeStraw was used to help people after the Haiti earthquake, and floods in Pakistan and Thailand.

3 AidPod, photo _____

When Simon Berry was travelling in Zambia, he noticed that he could buy Coca-Cola in the remotest villages. But in these same villages the people had no medicines and, because of that, one in five children were dying before their fifth birthday. He had an idea. 'Why don't they bring medicines when they deliver the Coca-Cola?' So he invented the AidPod, a triangular packet of medicines that fits between the bottles in a crate of Coca-Cola. Berry has experimented with a number of designs for his AidPod and is testing his ideas in other African countries, and save thousands of lives.

Reading

Strategy

When you are answering questions about specific information, remember that you will always find the information in a specific part of the text. It helps to underline the parts of the text that give you the information so that you can check your answers at the end.

- 1 Read the Strategy. Then read the first main paragraph of the text and the first question. Choose the correct option and underline the part of the text where you find the answer. Why are the other options wrong?

- 2 Now read the whole text. Choose the correct answers (A–D).

Mark Harris is a research scientist at Rothera Research Station, on Adelaide Island in the Antarctic. We asked Mark what were the best and the worst things about living in the Antarctic.

'The best thing about being here is the wonderful view,' Mark said. 'On my first day, I was unlucky because I was ill and had to spend a few days in bed. The station's doctor thought I'd eaten something bad at home, or in the station canteen, but I didn't even go to the canteen. I think it was the meal I had on the journey across – it didn't taste right to me. And so I was pretty miserable at the beginning. But then I lay in bed during those first days and watched icebergs drifting past my window. It was amazing! In summer, I like to be outside as much as possible. One of my jobs is to fly around with other scientists in a helicopter making observations and checking on experiments. We fly over the most fantastic places. Our pilots are really skilled. They can land anywhere – even on glaciers!'

'I try not to think about the bad things, but there are some, of course. I like the food – it's actually really good – but we don't have fresh fruit and vegetables. I often think about the countryside: the green grass, the trees, and the flowers. I always look forward to seeing it again. But Rothera is great because there's always someone to talk to if you're feeling unhappy, and someone will always help you with a difficult task. But at the same time people understand when you want to be alone.'

'There's always plenty to do as well. You might think that living in the middle of so much snow is boring, but it isn't at all. On good days I like to ski and snowboard, and watch the wildlife. I play badminton and table tennis at the station, and some nights I go to the gym, so fitness isn't a problem. We have video nights and games nights, and we even have cookery and woodwork lessons. I've actually learned some great new skills since I've been here. I've also had two holidays, camping. Of course, I'd like to have my friends and family with me, and I always think about that, but that can't happen for a while. I have to be patient. All in all, being at Rothera is a great experience.'

In which paragraph does the writer tell us ...

- what caused Christine's phobia? ☐
- what happened when Christine saw a spider in her car? ☐
- what Christine hopes for the future? ☐
- what other kinds of phobia exist? ☐
- what therapists can do to help? ☐

DON'T BE SCARED!

A

Australian Christine Schipp was in the car with her husband one day when suddenly, she saw a spider on the back window. She opened the door of the moving car and jumped out. The worst thing was that Christine was the driver of the car – her husband doesn't drive. Fortunately, the car stopped at the bottom of the hill, and her husband wasn't seriously hurt.

B

Christine reacted to the spider in this way because she has a phobia – a strong fear that she can't control. Her phobia is called arachnophobia – an extreme fear of spiders. But spiders are not the only animals that people are frightened of. Other animals can have a similar effect, including dogs, fish, birds and even frogs. There are also other types of phobia, such as environmental phobias (like fear of flying) and medical phobias (for example, when people are terrified of going to the dentist).

C

Like many phobias, Christine's fear of spiders comes from an event she experienced as a child. When she was four years old, her mother left her in the living room while she went into another room. While Christine was alone, she saw a huge spider coming towards her. She was absolutely terrified; so she climbed onto the sofa, and covered her eyes. When her mother came back, Christine was really upset.

D

The good news about Christine's phobia is that there is a cure. Psychologists use a technique called exposure therapy to help people with phobias. First, they show the patient pictures of the thing they are scared of, and then they put a plastic model of it on the table. Finally, they bring the patient into contact with the real thing and stay with him or her until they feel safe enough to be in the room alone.

E

After just three hours of this therapy, Christine Schipp was able to hold a glass jar containing the source of her fear: a large spider. But her treatment isn't finished. When she gets home, she has to continue looking at plastic spiders and pictures of spiders regularly. She hopes that one day, she will be able to be in a car with a spider and not put her own life, or the lives of the people she loves, in danger.

WHAT ARE YOU WATCHING?

It's dark outside, but eighteen-year-old Mike Owen doesn't notice the time passing. Today, he is only doing one thing: sitting in front of his computer screen, watching all thirteen episodes of season two of a TV crime drama. For Mike, a TV marathon like this one is an enjoyable way of spending the day. And he is not alone in his opinion.

Binge-viewing – watching several episodes of a TV series in one sitting – is getting more and more popular these days. And it isn't hard to see why. In the past, viewers had to wait nervously between episodes of their favourite TV series, because they were usually broadcast only once a week. Each chapter finished with a moment of suspense called a 'cliffhanger', and fans were often left for seven whole days wondering what would happen next. During this time, they often forgot some of the details, so they needed a flashback at the beginning of the next instalment to remind them of the key events. But all of this is changed with the technology of streaming. One of the most successful companies to use this technology is the American internet television network Netflix. For a monthly subscription, members can choose films or programmes from the company's enormous library and stream them to their TV or computer.

This system has a number of advantages. Firstly, users can watch what they want when they want and they don't have to follow the schedule of a TV channel. Secondly, they can play, pause and resume watching as they wish, so they can get a snack or answer the phone without missing the action. Thirdly, and most importantly for some, their viewing is not constantly interrupted by advertisements. Of course, this system has also made binge-viewing much easier.

Netflix has its own TV drama series called House of Cards, a political thriller starring Kevin Spacey and Robin Wright. Instead of introducing one episode a week, all thirteen chapters were streamed online at the same time. The series was extremely popular with the public, and it also won a number of important prizes. TV executives should take note of the show's success because the future of their own channels may be in danger.

INVENTED BY ACCIDENT

A MICROWAVE OVEN

This useful kitchen device was invented by an electronics genius called Percy Spencer. Spencer had been in the Navy, where he had taught himself how to be an engineer. When he left, he got a job at Raytheon, an important company in the arms industry. In 1945, Spencer was experimenting with radar when something strange happened. He noticed that a bar of chocolate in his pocket had melted. Spencer worked out that it was the microwaves from the radar that had heated the chocolate. Spencer continued investigating the effects of microwaves on food and developed the microwave oven. The first machine was sold just a year after Spencer had made his discovery.

B VELCRO

Velcro was invented by a Swiss engineer called George de Mestral. In 1948, Mestral was out walking with his dog when he noticed that the dog was covered in small green balls. The balls were the seeds of a plant which was common in the area. Mestral wanted to know what made these balls stick to his dog's fur, so he looked at one of them under his microscope. He saw that it had a lot of tiny hooks. Mestral realised that this technique could be used to make two strips of material stick together. He experimented with a variety of materials for years until the invention of nylon, which was perfect for his idea. The first Velcro was finally produced in 1955.

C PLAY-DOH

The children's toy Play-Doh actually started life as a cleaning product. It was made by an American company called Kutol Products and it was used to clean wallpaper. Sadly, the wallpaper cleaner did not sell very well, so Kutol Products began losing money. That is, until the company realised that its product was being used for a different purpose. Children had started using it to make Christmas ornaments in the shape of people and animals. Kutol Products adapted their product almost overnight by taking out the cleaning ingredient and adding colours and a nice smell. They also gave it a new name. Play-Doh went on to become one of the best-selling children's toys ever.

D SUPERGLUE

In 1942, Dr Harry Coover of Eastman-Kodak Laboratories was trying to find a new material to use for making part of a gun. He was disappointed to see that his latest effort, a substance called cyanoacrylate, was a complete failure because it stuck to everything it touched. Coover threw it away and forgot about it. Six years later, he came across cyanoacrylate once more when his company was developing a new design for part of a plane. Again, the substance stuck to everything in sight. But this time, Coover realised that the substance might be useful, because it didn't need heat to make it stick. Coover carried on experimenting with cyanoacrylate in his lab, and it appeared in DIY stores as superglue sixteen years after he had first used it.

Last April, my penfriend Lisa came to stay with me in Bangkok for two weeks. I know Lisa because our schools arranged an exchange programme and we visited each other two years ago. Since then, we have sent regular emails and letters, but we haven't seen each other.

Lisa is the same age as me. She's tall with short, dark hair and green eyes. We get on well because our personalities are very similar. As I see it, we're both easy-going and friendly, but quite shy too. We both hate loud, arrogant people!

Because Lisa visited in April, I wanted to show her how we celebrate the Songkran Festival here in Bangkok. So we went out on to the streets with buckets of water and splashed lots of people. It was great fun and Lisa really enjoyed experiencing a local tradition.

If I can save up enough money between now and August, I'll go to England to visit Lisa for a fortnight. We may go camping for a few days while I'm there. I hope the British weather is better than they say!

An opinion essay / article

Your local authority has decided that a supermarket chain can build a store on some nearby playing fields.

Write an article for an internet discussion forum.

- Explain why you disagree with the decision.
- Present the advantages of green spaces in towns.
- Describe a memorable event that took place there.
- Suggest a better location for the supermarket and give reasons.

YourTown.com

I strongly disagree with the plan to build a supermarket on the playing fields near our school. Firstly, it will mean losing an important facility for recreation. People of all ages use the fields for jogging, playing sports and having picnics. Secondly, it will cause an increase in traffic around the school.

Green spaces are particularly important in towns. They provide a space where people can escape from noise and pollution. Moreover, they make the whole area more attractive.

Last November, there was a firework display on the playing fields. Hundreds of people attended and the event raised a lot of money for charity.

In my view, it would be better to build a new supermarket next to the station. The buildings there are mostly empty. In addition, it would be much more convenient for customers for the supermarket to be on the ring road. A new supermarket would improve this part of town.

In conclusion, I oppose the plan to build a supermarket on the playing fields. I believe the playing fields are important to the local community. It would be better to build the supermarket close to the station.

• Begin by re-stating the main context of the task.

• Use words like Firstly ... and Secondly ... to sequence your points.

• Avoid using very informal language in an essay or article.

• Use a variety of expressions for introducing opinions like It seems to me ..., In my view, In my opinion ..., etc. and for making additional points, Moreover, Furthermore, etc.

• Use concession clauses like although, even though etc. at the beginning or end of a sentence.

• You must cover all of the points in the task.

• If you divide your essay or article into paragraphs, it is a good idea to have one paragraph for each point in the task.

• Finish by summing up your arguments.
